UNIT ONE

INTRODUCTION

WELCOME JOHNSON UNIVERSITY TENNESSEE!

Enrolling as a student at Johnson University Tennessee (JUTN) means entering into an academic community that is committed to preparing students to serve the Kingdom as Christian ministers, to developing student leaders who possess a biblical worldview, and to promoting a sense of community in which values are shared and individuals are respected.

As a private, coeducational institution of higher learning, Johnson University holds to the following core values:

- The lordship of Christ and the authority of Scripture
- The centrality of ministry and the priority of preaching
- The necessity of faith, the efficacy of prayer, and the value of work
- The importance of affordability and the worth of a nurturing community
- The imperative of a Christian lifestyle and the virtue of academic discipline
- The validity of the Restoration Plea and the significance of the University heritage

THE PURPOSE OF JOHNSON UNIVERSITY

Johnson educates students for Christian ministries and other strategic vocations framed by the Great Commission in order to extend the kingdom of God among all nations.

Johnson, a private, coeducational institution of higher learning offering associate, baccalaureate, and graduate degrees, strives to be faithful through twenty-first century methods to its historic purpose of preparing students to preach the Gospel.

Johnson seeks qualified students committed to communicating throughout the world the message of peace, wholeness, and restoration as described in Christian Scriptures. We enroll students from all age groups and from diverse geographic, ethnic, and social backgrounds. Consistent with our historic practice, we endeavor to make education available to students regardless of their financial resources.

Johnson engages a faculty supportive of its mission and committed to teaching and advising; scholarly and creative activity; and service to churches, Johnson, and the larger community. We create a supportive environment for spiritual formation in which students and faculty can identify abilities and realize responsibilities for personal growth and for service to others in the churches and the human community. We also provide financial resources, facilities, and administrative and academic services that support student and faculty achievement.

Johnson offers undergraduate programs involving a curriculum for all students that (1) centers upon the knowledge, application, and appreciation of the Scriptures; (2) builds upon a general education core aimed at understanding and appreciating cultural contexts as well as developing skills to communicate within those contexts; and (3) provides vocational options aimed at engaging students in congregational ministries and other strategic callings. Johnson offers graduate programs in professional and academic areas that prepare students for leadership in congregations, educational institutions, and other service vocations. Johnson also recognizes its responsibility of service to Christian congregations, the local community, and the world.

Johnson provides in the co-curricular and extracurricular activities a transformational, experiential, and missional education. These activities lead students to understand and exhibit ethical behavior consistent with scriptural norms, provide students with service learning opportunities that sharpen their abilities and sense of calling, and demonstrate ways that selected vocations accomplish their part of the Great Commission.
STUDENT SERVICES AND STUDENT LIFE

The overall goal for the Student Life office and staff is to support the University's curricular program by helping students grow toward maturity in Christ, developing spiritually, socially, physically, and intellectually. This goal is accomplished by providing programs and services that provide for that development.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Student rights and responsibilities are described in Units Five and Six of the Student Handbook. These rights and responsibilities are related to student records, alcohol and drug policies, AIDS awareness, security issues, Title IX issues (including sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual violence, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual exploitation, gender-based harassment, indecent exposure; see full list of definitions on page 37), discrimination (including race, national origin, sex, age, and disability), and other areas where state and federal laws prevail. A clearly defined procedure that is both fair and reasonable has been established to handle disciplinary matters involving students.

It is the responsibility of the student to read the Catalog, Student Handbook, and other information that Johnson University provides; stay informed about program revisions; and know and comply with all current policies, procedures, and requirements.

All who become members of the JUTN community have an obligation to support and obey University regulations as set forth in the Student Handbook, the same as they are expected to obey local, state, and federal laws. Those who cannot or will not comply will be subject to disciplinary action and the privilege of continued attendance at the University may be withdrawn.
UNIT TWO

STUDENT SERVICES

Introduction
The Johnson experience provides for a student the opportunity to discover and apply Biblical principles of living; to develop mature Christian attitudes and values; to learn about new personal, social, educational, and vocational roles; to enjoy recreational and social activities within the campus community; and to associate with a variety of new and different people. The experience of higher education can and should be stimulating, stressful, and growth producing.

JUTN provides services that are intended to help students with this experience, including the following.

Campus Housing

Residence Halls. Brown Hall and Johnson Hall provide housing for single male and single female students respectively. Each building has 144 student rooms which can accommodate single, double, and triple occupancy. Each room has a private bathroom, air conditioning, network, wi-fi, and telephone connections. Each residence hall is equipped with one public and two private lobby areas, several semi-private study areas, two laundry rooms, and two kitchenettes. Each residence hall also has a prayer room and a small physical fitness facility. Residence hall staff include a resident director and student resident assistants. Clark Hall provides housing for up to 39 residents in single occupancy rooms with shared bathrooms, a lobby, kitchenette, and laundry facilities located adjacent to the residence hall.

Non-traditional Student Housing. Housing for non-traditional students is provided in four areas on campus, and include the following:

- Bell Hall is a three-story apartment building containing one- and two-room efficiency units of varying sizes. All utilities are included in the rent of these apartments.
- Garrett Way/Gateway Townhouses have two bedrooms, one and a half bathrooms. These units are designed for families with one or two children.
- Various sizes of mobile homes are available for rent in three mobile home courts on campus.
- Duplex units with three bedrooms and two bathrooms.
- Several of the duplex units are designated for use by single students who meet certain criteria (see p. 57)

Student resident assistants are assigned in each of the housing areas to facilitate community development.

Campus Facilities and Services

The Phillips-Welshimer Building contains a gymnasium, administrative offices, classrooms, and the Russell Preaching Center. The Glass Memorial Library provides students with a convenient place for research and study. It contains over 100,000 volumes and provides access to over 250,000 e-books and approximately 16,000 full-text journals. The Library also houses one of four campus computer labs. A small chapel, and a prayer room are located in the Old Main Building. Except for the president’s house, the Old Main Building, built in 1905, is the oldest building on campus still in use. The Eubanks Activities Center, built in 1990, houses the offices of the president, advancement, enrollment services, and student life. The second floor contains classrooms, TV studio and media communications offices. On the lower level are a snack bar, a coffee shop, game room, racquetball courts, television area, fitness facility, and the graphics office. The Alumni Memorial Chapel seats about 450 students and is used for special campus worship services. A music facility located on the lower level includes practice rooms, six piano labs, a choir room and faculty offices. Richardson Hall houses the teacher education department, multimedia classrooms, computer lab, a global outreach center, and an archaeology center. The former Myrtle Hall has been remodeled as a state-of-the-art home for the University Counseling Center. A women’s fitness center is located on the lower level of Clark Hall. Gally Commons houses the post office, campus store, and large dining facility.

Student Life Office
The Student Life office is located in the Eubanks Activity Center. The Dean of Students and Student Life staff coordinate student life programs and activities and provide pastoral counseling services to students. This office also maintains the Church on the Hill benevolence fund to assist students with certain needs. Benevolence inquiries should be directed to the office of Student Life.

Health Services Office
The student Health Services Office, located in the Eubanks Activities Center is staffed by a registered nurse. Services include wellness instruction, first aid for injuries and illness, and coordinating referral to area physicians. The nurse is not responsible for diagnosis, treatment of sicknesses, making appointments, or providing transportation to area doctors. Office hours are posted each term. Adequate hospitals and medical facilities are available in Knoxville if serious medical attention is needed. Students must show evidence of adequate health insurance, or they must purchase the Student Insurance Policy offered through the University.

The University requires undergraduate students living on campus and full-time commuter students enrolled in traditional undergraduate programs to have health insurance. A student who needs health insurance coverage can find insurance and policy information for the Tennessee campus on the Johnson University Tennessee website: (http://tn.johnsonu.edu/Future-Students/Student-Accounts/HealthInsurance.aspx).

Students are automatically enrolled in the University’s health insurance plan unless they provide proof of coverage. Students who enroll in the plan at the beginning of Fall Term pay in advance for a 12-month policy. Students who begin in Spring Term pay a reduced amount due to the reduced term of coverage.

Dean of the Chapel
The Dean of the Chapel’s office is located in the Russell Preaching Center in Phillips-Welshimer Building. The Dean of the Chapel is responsible for chapel programs and chapel attendance records as well as spiritual life programming for the campus community.

Athletic Facilities
The University maintains athletic facilities for both varsity and intramural athletic programs including two gymnasiums, three tennis courts, two racquetball courts, baseball field, disc golf course, floor hockey (in the old gym), and volleyball. The old gym houses an indoor swimming pool. Table tennis, billiards equipment, and a fitness facility are located in the Eubanks Activities Center.

Academic Advising
School deans assign a faculty advisor to each student to assist in selecting appropriate courses each term. Advisors also counsel students with vocational and personal concerns as needed.

Academic Support Center
The Academic Support Center (ASC) provides general academic assistance, as well as course-specific assistance to students who request it. The ASC professionally manages and employs a variety of techniques, including peer tutoring and computer-assisted instruction. It provides training in time management, study skills, proofreading, writing, test-taking skills, and other aspects of university success. The Center also provides online academic coaching through WCONLINE5.
Advising and tutoring appointments may be scheduled online (https://johnsonu.mywconline.com). Information and resources offered by the ASC appear on the University website (http://johnsonu.edu/Tennessee/Academics/Academic-Resources.aspx). The ASC is located in Richardson Hall, Room 265.

Career Services

The Johnson University Career Services Center’s (CSC) programs and services provide a network for students, employers, alumni, and faculty, while training and preparing students to be servant leaders and ethical professionals. The CSC supports the mission and goals of Johnson University by assisting students in realizing their God-given potential through exploring and developing academic and career plans rooted in their faith and values (http://tn.johnsonu.edu/ServiceEvents/Career-Services.aspx). In partnership with alumni, parents, and employers, the CSC develops informational and experiential networks that support career exploration. It also provides career counseling, assistance with job searches, information regarding internships and experiential education, workshops, events and professional development. Johnson Ministry and Employment Opportunities posted on the website provide a current list of churches and employers searching for Johnson students and alumni to fill positions (https://johnsonucsm.symplicity.com). The Career Services Office is located in the Eubanks Activity Center, Room 320.

Disability Services

Johnson complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 by providing reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities. The Special Services Office on the Tennessee campus evaluates requests and determines appropriate accommodations. The Academic Support Center provides appropriate assistance. Nearly all campus facilities are handicap accessible.

Students with disabilities who require the use of Service or Emotional Support Animals as a reasonable accommodation may obtain a copy of the University’s Service and Emotional Support Animal policy and procedure from the Student Life office.

University Counseling Center

The University Counseling Center (UCC) provides limited mental health services to students currently enrolled in traditional programs. The center is staffed by graduate students under the careful supervision of the professional counseling faculty.

The UCC exists to offer a broad range of preventive, remedial, and developmental counseling services to Johnson University students, staff, their families and the community at large. It offers accessible, culturally competent, quality care to clients that is respectful of a person's family and loved ones, faith, language, culture, ethnicity, gender, and identity as a sexual being. At the client's level of comfort, student therapists incorporate spirituality and biblical components in the counseling process regarding faith as core to the growth and healing process. The UCC clinical faculty retains the right to refer clients or potential clients to other service providers when necessary.

University Placement Office

The University Ministry Placement office is located in Richardson Hall. Services offered include full-time and part-time job and ministry listings, resume review, and mock interviews.

Food Services

Food services are provided through Pioneer College Caterers in the dining hall at posted hours, and the River Grill which is open most of the day. Pioneer also operates the Underground, a coffee shop featuring Starbucks brand coffees. Vending machines are also available which stock drinks and snacks. For single students the charges for board are based on a required contract food plan (9, 13 or 17 meals per week) which has proven to be the most economical method to provide both adequate and high-quality meals. All students housed in the residence halls are required to be on a meal contract.
No food or drinks may be taken from the dining room. For example, food and drinks are not to be carried to the residence halls or into classrooms.

Special diets will be provided by arrangement with the manager of food services. A note from a doctor is required.

Campus Store

The Johnson University Campus Store is typically open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. It is the official source for Johnson University Gear, clothing and accessories that bear the University insignia. The Campus Store also stocks a variety of other merchandise, including books, school supplies, gifts, snacks, and personal items. Students may contact the Campus Store by telephone (865.251.2246) or email (bookstore@JohnsonU.edu).

Textbook Services are offered online through Follett (www.JohnsonU.bkstr.com), the leading textbook provider in the United States. Students enter the bookstore website through a Johnson sign-in and password, place texts and other learning materials in their “shopping cart,” and make their purchases through a credit card or by charging them to their Johnson University student account. Follett ships the books to campus or to another address provided by the student. For questions about textbook purchases, contact the Campus Store by telephone (865.251.2246) or email (bookstore@JohnsonU.edu).

Internet and Email

Email. Johnson University issues a unique user name and password to all new students. They receive an email with their user name and password and security information. The university issued name and password provide students with access to My.JohnsonU.edu and Sakai courses, both of which contain personal information. Students are thus responsible for protecting their personal information with password management by changing their university issued passwords and setting up a security question for future password changes at http://JohnsonU.edu/password.

Student email addresses will be used to communicate vital information regarding Johnson University, such as registration information, student financial services information, campus emergency notifications, and weekly announcements sent to the current Johnson University community. It is the student’s responsibility to check their own Johnson University email account regularly, preferably every day, since important correspondence from the University will be sent to this email address.

Pornography. Based on the assumption that visiting pornographic Web sites is a spiritual problem, first offenders will be referred to the Associate Dean of Students for pastoral counseling. Revisiting pornographic web sites suggests the possibility that there is an underlying psychological addiction as well as a spiritual problem; therefore, repeat offenders will be referred to the Counseling Center for therapy. Continuing visits to pornographic Web sites in spite of pastoral counseling and psychological therapy suggests the presence of deep-seated prurient interests that will be dealt with as a disciplinary problem.

Organization and Bylaws of Johnson University

Johnson University operates under bylaws established by the board of trustees. This document states the name, location, nature, purpose and basic doctrinal position of the University. It provides for a Board of Trustees composed of no fewer than eight and no more than fifteen members, a majority of whom must be alumni of Johnson University. It also provides for a Council of Seventy, an alumni advisory group. It states responsibilities for the trustees, president, and faculty. A copy of the Bylaws is available in the Student Life office. A copy of the organizational chart of Johnson University can also be found in the Student Life office.

President's Cabinet

The President's Cabinet consists of the President, Provost, Chancellor of the Florida campus, Vice President for Operations, Vice President for Student Services, Vice President for Advancement, Vice President for Enrollment Services, Vice President for Finance, Dean of the Chapel, and the Vice Provost for Research and Planning.

The cabinet serves to advise the President on administrative matters, to serve as a sounding board for ideas and plans which he is formulating, to be a forum for communication among the administrators and their departments, to assist in resolving conflicts or crisis situations which impact the entire institution, and to provide opportunity for the administrators to seek advice in meeting their own responsibilities.

Academic Council.

Decisions that affect only students within a given school or program are generally made at the school level (e.g. course curricula, practicum requirements). Decisions that require a broader “university perspective” are made by the Academic Council—or, in some cases, by the faculty as a whole (e.g. admission standards, academic calendar, Arts & Sciences Core requirements). Chaired by the Provost, the Academic Council focuses primarily on issues related to educational programs, policies, assessment, quality control, and accreditation. It evaluates proposals not only from the perspective of student learning, but also with regard to their implications for strategic planning, marketing, recruiting, financial aid, library resources, support services, and other aspects of university operations. The Academic Council consists of the Provost (chair), assistant provosts, school deans, and key directors and administrators, and representatives of the faculty at large.

Faculty Committees

Athletic Committee. This committee is to meet at least one time per semester and has the responsibility to give advice about the operation and implementation of the athletic events on campus, both intercollegiate and intramural. The committee is comprised of the Athletic Director, two faculty members, one male student one female student, and the Dean of Students (ex officio). Faculty members are selected by the VP for Academic Affairs and the students are nominated by Student Government and approved by the Athletic Director.

Chapel Leadership Team. This committee is responsible for praying, planning and preparing for chapel services. Special consideration is given to the intentional ordering of the message, music and other creative elements so that chapel services can best play a positive role in the spiritual formation of our campus community. The committee is comprised of students selected through an application process and the Dean of the Chapel who serves as chair.

Service Learning Committee. The responsibility of this committee is to advise and recommend policy and procedure for the student ministry program. This committee is comprised of the student ministry coordinator, two faculty members, one male student and one female student.

Credentials Committee. This committee is charged with the responsibility to review and determine the academic status of students with serious academic problems. The Committee has authority to place students on or remove students from Academic Suspension, Academic Probation, Service Learning Suspension, Service Learning probation, and to hear appeals to change suspension or probation status. The committee is comprised of the Vice Provost for Planning and Research, the Registrar, the Vice President for Student Services, the Dean of Enrollment Services, and the Assistant Provost for Academic Services.

Discipline Committee. This committee shall be responsible to review, revise, and interpret the regulations for behavior and conduct as defined in the JUTN Student Handbook. This is a decision making committee with authority to dismiss a student from school for severe disciplinary causes. The Dean of Students will inform the President, Provost, and the student’s academic advisor of any such decision. This committee is comprised of three faculty members, a female and male student, and the Dean of Students, who serves as chairman but does not vote. The meetings are called.

Strategic Planning. The Strategic Planning Committee (SPC) is an advisory committee organized for the purpose of ongoing, integrated, and institution-wide research-based planning and evaluation at Johnson. In addition to administrative, staff, and faculty personnel, one student serves on this committee.
Tasks:
(1) At the direction of the president the committee will prepare, publish, and monitor institutional strategic goals. These goals are normally presented in a five-year strategic plan. The committee will also modify and adapt the goals according to results from assessment and emerging developments in the life of the school. The review of goals and outcomes is the foundation of continuous improvement directed towards fulfillment of the university mission. The committee will report to the board each September on the current status of each goal.

(2) The SPC will review program performance of all JU academic programs and supporting administrative departments. The committee will publish a five-year calendar in which each school and administrative unit of the university will report on assessment results and other studies relevant to that school or unit. In June of each year the SPC and the Director of Institutional Effectiveness will publish an annual Institutional Effectiveness Report.

(3) The SPC will create an integrated master planning document designed to enhance mission effectiveness. The calendar will facilitate communication across functional units of the university. This document will be refreshed and published each February.

(4) The SPC will collect and analyze internal and external research.

Library Committee. The library committee advises the Library Director regarding the development of library resources, on matters of general library policy, and on means which may best integrate library services with other academic activities of the University. This committee is comprised of four faculty members from the Tennessee campus (one from the School of Arts & Sciences, one from the School of Bible and Theology, and two rotating from among the other Schools), two faculty members from the Florida campus, a student representative from each campus nominated by the Student Government Association and approved by the Library Director/Associate Librarian, all librarians, and the Library Director, who serves as the chair. Faculty members will serve two-year terms and student representatives will serve one-year terms. The entire committee will meet at least one time per year, and the committee members on each campus will meet at least one time per semester.

Alumni Association & Council of Seventy
The purpose of the JUTN Alumni Association is to: (1) promote sustained loyalty to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior; (2) promote continual loyalty and support to Johnson; and (3) maintain a spirit of mutual encouragement and helpfulness among alumni.

The regular annual business meeting of the alumni association is held during the week of the JUTN Alumni Homecoming in February. All senior students currently enrolled in JUTN are invited to attend the annual business meeting as a non-voting member in the association. Members of the graduating class each year receive a complimentary one-year free membership in the association. Voting membership in the association is granted to all former students who have earned credits at JUTN and have paid their annual alumni dues. Alumni who pay their dues are eligible for election to the Council of Seventy.

The purpose of the JUTN Council of Seventy is to: (1) consult with trustees concerning new trustee nominations when requested by the trustees; (2) do all possible to send qualified students to Johnson; (3) be constantly on the lookout for financial support for Johnson and encourage this support always; (4) work diligently to enlist all alumni in the support of Johnson; and (5) carry out a system of honoring Johnson men and women who have rendered distinguished services to the University, the church, the community, or the nation.
UNIT THREE

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Worship and Prayer

Spiritual Growth. Johnson recognizes that spiritual growth is an essential experience in ministerial education. Both worship and prayer have been given important places in the total student life at Johnson. Participation in chapel services, weekly church services, missionary emphasis activities, lectureships, prayer rooms, residence hall devotions, discipleship groups, and informal prayer groups allows each student the opportunities and environment to deepen spiritual consciousness.

Area Churches. Students, faculty, and staff participate in the programs of a number of area churches including:

Knoxville: Christian Church of Fountain City
Crossings
Farragut Christian Church (Concord)
Halls Christian Church
Cornerstone Christian Church
Sullivan Road Christian Church
Thorn Grove Christian Church (Strawberry Plains)
West Towne Christian Church
Woodlawn Christian Church
Gap Creek Christian Church (Kimberlin Heights)

Seymour: Seymour Heights Christian Church

Sevierville: Abundant Life Christian Church
Smoky Mountain Christian Church

Pigeon Forge: First Christian Church

Maryville: First Christian Church
Blount Christian Church
Meadowbrook Christian Church
Unity Christian Church
Louisville: Louisville Christian Church

Harriman: First Christian Church

Lenoir City: Christian Church of Loudon County

Kingston: Morrison Hill Christian Church

Morristown: Community Christian Church
First Christian Church

Jefferson City: Jefferson City Christian Church

Newport: First Christian Church
English Mountain Christian Church

Oak Ridge: West Village Christian Church

Clinton: Christian Church

Powell: Lighthouse Christian Church

An up-to-date directory of churches in the Tennessee Valley is available here:

http://johnsonu.edu/Tennessee/About/Area-Churches.aspx

Church Membership. Students who attend area churches are encouraged to transfer their memberships (or place student memberships) and become involved regularly and dependably with those congregations. A church home away from home is a vital part of a student's Christian growth and development.

Church Attendance. Students are expected to be actively involved in local churches. Participation in the Sunday service should be considered a starting point for involvement. Several congregations offer “student membership” to Johnson students in order to facilitate active involvement.

University Church. The Church on the Hill functions mainly as a benevolence organization.

Chapel Policies

Chapel. Chapel meets Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 9:00 to 9:50 a.m. The purpose of chapel at Johnson University is to worship God in a way in which God is exalted and His people are formed into the likeness of Christ. Wednesday chapels consist of small group meetings (described below). On Tuesdays and Thursdays, the entire student body assembles for worship. These meetings usually consist of prayer, singing, and preaching, but other programs are common. While faculty and senior students provide several chapel sermons during the year, the University also invites area ministers, missionaries, and other guests to speak. Through Preaching Emphasis Week and the Craddock Lectures, the University brings nationally known speakers to campus each year. Such experiences contribute to the total learning process and inform students of fields of service to consider as ministry for Christ. In addition to these formal opportunities for worship, prayer rooms are scattered throughout the campus in various buildings. Students taking 5.9 credits or less are not required to enroll in chapel.

Chapel Groups. Smaller “Chapel Groups” meet on Wednesdays. Some are special interest groups, such as Harvesters (world missions), Society of Preaching (pulpit ministry), Student Government, Honors Chapel, Freshman Student-Led Chapel, and various topical studies. Additional small groups meet regularly for discipleship, accountability, and residence hall devotions.

Campus Media

Campus Mail. Each student is assigned a mail box at the Post Office in the Gally Commons. The post office is open Monday – Saturday from 8 a.m. – 1 p.m.

E-Announcement Sheets. An announcement sheet is emailed twice each week to all Johnson email addresses. Announcements submitted by email (Announcements@JohnsonU.edu) to the Student Life office by noon Monday will be published in the Tuesday announcement sheet. Announcements submitted by noon Thursday will make the Friday edition.

Bulletin Boards. Administrative announcements will be posted on the bulletin board next to the Bookstore in Gally Commons. Announcements for the main bulletin boards must be neat, dated, and signed. Forms and approval for posting announcements on the bulletin boards may be obtained in the Student Life office. Do not post signs on walls, doors, or windows. Unauthorized or improperly posted announcements will be removed and the posting individual or organization may be fined up to $10 per post. Oversized posters are subject to restriction. Bulletin boards will be reviewed regularly and outdated or unauthorized notices will be removed.

Student Publications. Student publications must receive official recognition from the Dean of Students and must conform to such editorial standards as may be required by the Communications faculty.

University Calendar. Monthly schedules of special events are published online by the Student Life office.

Student Government Association (SGA)

The Student Government Association (SGA) consists of student representatives, elected by the student body, who seek to build a united student body through encouraging and uplifting servant leadership. These representatives consist of executive officers and class officers who work alongside appointed directors to oversee the functions of the SGA. The SGA strives to be the unified voice of student concerns, while creating campus involvement and community outreach. In addition, the SGA works to enhance unity on campus by promoting opportunities for the enrichment and fulfillment of the student body's social and spiritual life through events and activities. The SGA was established to promote better relations between students, faculty, and alumni. Members are elected to the council each spring. The Dean of Students Services serves as advisor to the SGA.

The SGA coordinates many student activities throughout the school year. The SGA coordinates the annual class elections each spring. Student grievances can often be resolved effectively by the SGA which interprets student opinion to the faculty and vice versa.

Students on probation (academic or disciplinary) are not permitted to serve as class officers or as members of the SGA.

Class Officers
Class officers should coordinate plans for class activities with the SGA and the Student Life office.

Student Organizations

Official Recognition. All student organizations are required to register and receive approval from the Dean of Students in order to have access to University facilities. Students wishing to form a student organization should begin by obtaining a Student Organization Application from the SGA and submitting that application to the SGA Student Life Committee. Only currently enrolled students and their families may hold membership in student organizations.

Finances. All student organizations are required to use the JUTN business office as a depository for finances. Check requests must be signed by the organization's treasurer or president and co-signed by the organization's sponsor or the Vice President for Student Services. The treasurer will keep an accurate record of the organization's current balance and will see to it that all bills are promptly paid. When a group is no longer active or has gone out of existence, the sponsor will arrange to transfer the group's funds to the Church on the Hill for their disposition.

Student organizations are not permitted to charge admission to events on campus. Fund raising projects must be approved by the Dean of Students. No more than one fund-raiser per group per semester will be permitted. Accounting for fund-raisers must be reported to the sponsors and to the Dean of Students. All advertising for fund-raisers will be limited to bulletin boards and the e-announcement sheet. Postings on the bulletin boards may appear as early as two weeks before the event and must be removed in a timely manner.

Minutes. Minutes and other group records are an important part of the organization's history and may contain information of value to future officers. During transitions between officers and during summer vacations, all written records should be deposited for safe-keeping with the faculty sponsor or the Student Life office. The long-term activities of some organizations form a significant aspect of the history of the institution and a set of written records may become a significant contribution to the archives of the University.

Special Events. Student organizations are required to submit an “Activities Form” in order to use University facilities and equipment, on or off campus. Administrative approval must be obtained before scheduling an event. A checklist of procedures for special events can be obtained from the Student Life office. After completing the checklist, it must be returned to the Plant Services office.

Individual students wishing to use University facilities must first receive permission and schedule use of the facilities in the Student Life office. Special guidelines for scheduling weddings, rehearsals, and receptions are available.

Role of Students in Institutional Decision Making
Student voices are heard at Johnson. They have access to the alumni association and trustees through the Student Affairs Committee of the Council of Seventy. Seniors may attend the annual business meeting of the alumni association at breakfast on Thursday during the week of Homecoming. Students have direct access to the faculty, staff, and administrators. Results of student questionnaires and surveys are reviewed annually by the planning committee, the cabinet, and the faculty. Several faculty committees include student members.

Athletics

The athletic program is an integral part of the education process and is considered a significant enhancement to building Christian character.

Intercollegiate athletics. The University is a member of the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) Division II. Varsity teams in men's baseball, basketball, soccer, tennis, golf and cross-country compete with other college and university teams inside and outside the Association. Women’s varsity teams compete in basketball, volleyball, soccer, tennis, and cross-country. The colors of the Johnson University Tennessee Royals are blue and white with orange accent.

Student athletes do not receive athletic scholarships or any other special compensation for participating in intercollegiate athletics. Students who participate in intercollegiate athletics are required to meet the same academic requirements as other students. A student on probation may not play on a varsity team. Academic eligibility requirements may be found in the JUTN Catalog.

Intramural athletics. The intramural program is supervised by the Athletic Director in cooperation with the athletic committee.

Eligibility for Intramurals. Eligibility to participate in intramurals at JUTN is limited to the people who meet one or more of the following criteria:

1. A full-time resident or commuter student with 12 hours or more of class load. A senior in his or her final semester will be considered eligible regardless of course load.
2. A spouse or child (at least 16 years old) of a full-time student (as defined above) living in the same household. [A child may not compete in a sport that he/she is a member of at school according to Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association (TSSAA) rulings, unless the season is over; however, participation in intramurals may not start after teams are chosen.]
3. A member of the faculty or staff, or a spouse or child (at least 16 years old) of a member of the faculty or staff living in the same household. (A child may not compete in a sport that he/she is a member of at school according to TSSAA rulings unless the season is over; however, participation in intramurals may not start after teams are chosen.)

No one may be added to an intramural team after the season of competition has begun.
UNIT FOUR

COMMUNITY LIVING

Any individual who lives, studies, or works at JUTN is part of a community that is dedicated to educating and equipping students for effective service in the larger community of God’s Kingdom. Because of the biblical mandate for holy living and the world’s need for servants who demonstrate Christian character and integrity, the University is committed to developing a community which models these values. While opinions concerning some behavioral standards may vary from culture to culture and from time to time, the following lifestyle standards have been adopted as appropriate for living in this Christian community.

General Conduct

Because Johnson students are being prepared for Great Commission vocations:

• The use alcoholic beverages, marijuana, narcotics, or tobacco (in any form), abuse of legal substances, or smoking any substance in any form is strictly prohibited both on campus and off campus.
• JUTN students are not to go clubbing.
• Profane or vulgar language is never appropriate for Christians (Eph 5:4), and is prohibited both on and off-campus as well as online.
• JUTN students are to exercise Christian discretion in dancing by avoiding erotic or sexually suggestive dance. In any event, university groups are not permitted to sponsor dancing, whether on or off campus.

Johnson University does not presume to be a censoring agency for all activities. However, evidence of maturing Christian convictions and discerning judgment is expected. Johnson University reserves the right to dismiss a student who, in its judgment, does not conform to the expectations governing student conduct. As a student, you should recognize that anything you do, whether on campus or off, during academic periods or during break, should contribute to the educational purpose of Johnson University.

Campus Community

For the purpose of this document, “campus community” includes students, faculty, staff and their immediate family members, and may include guests and alumni visiting the campus.

Perspective

Johnson University recognizes the complexity of the issues related to sexual morality, and the challenges and opportunities these present to a campus culture seeking to pursue Christ in all things. It is expected that students will heed the call to make all things subject to Christ, including all things related to sexual morality. The University affirms a commitment to the biblical perspective that sexual relationships outside of marriage are inconsistent with biblical teaching, and that marriage is between a man and a woman. All perspectives and approaches to identity, relationships and behavior must be evaluated within the light of Scriptural truth, and any deemed incompatible with a biblical worldview and understanding of human nature and Christian identity will be deemed unacceptable within the campus community.

The University also recognizes that due to the brokenness that exists in the world, many people, including students, may struggle with all types of sexual temptation. In order to be consistent with biblical teaching, the campus community will come alongside and encourage students to not pursue temptations associated with these struggles and instead choose to live in purity before God.

For the purposes of housing, facilities, and/or other services provided by the University which are sex-specific, a student's documented biological sex will be used to determine eligibility.

The University understands sexual purity before God as a heart issue and that viewing pornography fuels lustful thoughts and objectifies those portrayed in the material. In order to be consistent with biblical teaching, the University prohibits accessing pornographic websites or pornographic material in any form.

Couples Relationships

Relationships between couples are expected to be discreet and above reproach. While it is natural for couples to develop genuine affection for one another and to express this feeling in appropriate ways, the public display of affection is limited.

Except for the holding of hands, the conduct of couples is to be guided by a hands-off policy. For example, couples will not walk together with her hand in his back pocket or his hand in her back pocket, sit on each other's laps, or sit together in a hammock, in a chair built for one, or share a bed.

When walking on campus, couples must keep themselves to open and lighted areas. When sitting together, couples should not be in a reclining position. Couples will not visit in music practice rooms, isolated areas on campus, or in parked cars either on or off campus.

Spending the night together in an unchaperoned situation is considered to be a major breach of good conduct (see page 23, item 6). Students should avoid spending extended time in locations where there is little or no accountability, such as apartments (on or off campus) or bedrooms. Neither coed camping trips nor coed vacations are permitted without the presence of married chaperones.

Couples may pray together in the prayer room in the Richardson Hall with the lights on. The upper rooms in the chapel and Old Main Building are not for use by couples.

A couple planning marriage during the school year must comply with the following conditions in order to remain in school: (1) provide the Dean of Students with the written consent of the parents of both parties; (2) make provision through the Student Life office or University Counseling Center for premarital counseling; and (3) arrange for housing through the Student Life office.

Dress Code

Piercings. While piercings are not prohibited, they are restricted. Students should avoid extreme or faddish displays. Men are to limit piercings to earrings, while women are to limit their piercings to earrings and nose piercings.

General Dress Code. Students are expected to exercise Christian discretion and modesty in their dress, and to dress appropriately for the occasion. Fashion fads and extremes are not appropriate, for instance:

- Short and revealing skirts and shorts;
- tight or revealing pants;
- halter tops, muscle shirts, or bare midriffs;
- clothing with profanity, vulgarity, or drug, alcohol, or sexual messages.

Individual teachers or work supervisors may require a stricter standard of dress in their classrooms or work areas for educational and professional reasons.

The faculty and student life staff, including resident assistants, will give guidance to students concerning these guidelines.

Grooming and Personal Hygiene

Students are expected to maintain a modest, wholesome appearance with regard to personal hygiene and cleanliness.

Hair should be neatly trimmed and of a style that would not be considered extreme by the faculty. Examples of men's haircuts that are considered extreme and faddish are hair carving and Mohawks, but this is not an exhaustive list.
Illness
Students who need to see a doctor are responsible for arranging their own appointments and transportation. Residence Hall staff does not typically provide transportation. The Health Services Office keeps a list of area doctors who are willing to see JUTN students.

Wedding Policy
University facilities may be used for weddings and receptions by members of the campus community subject to scheduling considerations.

Indoor wedding receptions will be allowed in the hallway of the Phillips-Welshimer Building and the private dining rooms of the Gally Commons. Wedding ceremonies in locations other than the Alumni Memorial Chapel or Old Chapel will be by special permission only. Outdoor locations are limited to those designated by university staff. JUTN does not provide tents, chairs, tables, lighting or other items for outdoor weddings or receptions.

The charge for using university facilities is $350 for a wedding and rehearsal, and $350 for a reception. The fees cover use of the facilities only. The couple should arrange to compensate university staff personnel who provide services on their own time.

Kitchen facilities are not available, but catering may be arranged through Pioneer College Caterers. The person scheduling the facilities is responsible for protecting University property, for cleanup afterward, and for returning pieces of furniture to their original location. No rice or birdseed is permitted inside the buildings. JUTN also observes a no smoking and no alcoholic beverage policy.

An "Activities Form" must be filled out to put the event on the official school calendar and to schedule the use of University facilities. This form is available from the Student Life office.

Use of the White House and/or Grounds
The White House is the private residence of the President. Use of the White House and/or its grounds is by special arrangement with the President or designee, is not scheduled through the Student Life office, and does not require an activity form. Tents, chairs, tables, lighting, or other items are not provided.

The charge for using the White House and/or its grounds is $350 for a wedding and rehearsal and $350 for a reception. The fees cover use of the facilities only. The couple should arrange to compensate university staff personnel who provide services on their own time. Using the White House Refectory and kitchen facilities for a reception requires the hiring of a university staff person already approved to work in the White House to oversee the event. Compensation for this person is the responsibility of the wedding party. Also, since this facility is the private residence of the president, all events and clean-up should be completed by 11:00 pm or arrangements made for further clean-up on the next day.

Catering may be arranged through Pioneer College Caterers or an off-campus caterer.

The person scheduling the White House and/or its grounds is responsible for protecting the property, for cleanup afterward, and for returning pieces of furniture to their original location. No rice or birdseed is permitted inside the White House. The same no smoking and no alcoholic beverage policy applies.

Policy on Marital Separations
If a Non-Traditional Student separates from his or her spouse during the course of a semester, the student must report the situation to the Dean of Students. The administration will then determine if the student may be allowed to remain in school and/or on campus. If the couple does not reconcile before the end of the semester, the student will not be permitted to continue in school or living on campus. No student will be admitted to school who is separated from his or her spouse. Because of the complex nature of marital problems leading to separation, the University reserves the right to take whatever action is necessary for the welfare of the couple and of the student body in general.

Policy on Continued Enrollment
JUTN students must demonstrate that they are able to appropriately manage academics, social, personal lives and their health, in order to remain enrolled.

- Students who do not attend classes or who are disruptive to the academic process or social and academic experience of other students may be administratively withdrawn.
- Students must demonstrate that they are able to comply with physical and psychological health care professional's recommendations concerning medications and self-care. (JUTN staff do not administer medication to students in order to regulate compliance with medications.) Students unable to demonstrate compliance may be administratively withdrawn.
- Students who self-injure, and/or act in ways that are dangerous to themselves or others will be confronted and counseled. They will be asked to follow a plan for resolution. Students unable to comply with the plan will be administratively withdrawn. Evidence of resolution to the underlying problems must be presented before re-enrollment will be considered.
- Students who leave the campus and/or are hospitalized due to psychological crises may not return directly to the campus until they have met with the Dean of Students and been cleared for return by a psychiatrist.

Bicycles

All bicycles must be registered with the business office. There is a registration fee assessed annually for each bicycle. Unregistered bicycles will be confiscated. University staff will dispose of all bicycles not removed from the residence halls at the end of the school year. Cyclists are expected to obey the rules of the road on campus.

Weapons

Possession or use of weapons on the Johnson campus is prohibited by JUTN and by Tennessee law. The possession prohibition includes a student having a weapon in a personal vehicle. Firearms, BB guns, air soft guns, tasers, and knives with blades longer than three inches are among the items included in the prohibition. Children of campus residents need to be made aware of this prohibition. Security and university personnel are authorized to confiscate any of these prohibited items.

Tennessee Code. TCA 39-17-1309(b)(1): “It is an offense for any person to possess or carry, whether openly or concealed, with the intent to go armed, any firearm, explosive, explosive weapon, bowie knife, hawk bill knife, ice pick, dagger, slingshot, leaded cane, switchblade knife, blackjack, knuckles or any other weapon of like kind, not used solely for instructional or school-sanctioned ceremonial purposes, in any public or private school building or bus, on any public or private school campus, grounds, recreation area, athletic field or any other property owned, used or operated by any board of education, school, college or university board of trustees, regents or directors for the administration of any public or private educational institution.

TCA 39-17-1309(c)(1): It is an offense for any person to possess or carry, whether openly or concealed, any firearm, not used solely for instructional or school-sanctioned ceremonial purposes, in any public or private school building or bus, on any public or private school campus, grounds, recreation area, athletic field or any other property owned, used or operated by any board of education, school, college or university board of trustees, regents or directors for the administration of any public or private educational institution. It is not an offense under this subsection (c) for a nonstudent adult to possess a firearm, if the firearm is contained within a private vehicle operated by the adult and is not handled by the adult, or by any other person acting with the expressed or implied consent of the adult, while the vehicle is on school property.

TCA 39-17-1309(d)(1): Each chief administrator of a public or private school shall display in prominent locations about the school a sign, at least six inches (6”) high and fourteen inches (14”) wide, stating: FELONY. STATE LAW PRESCRIBES A MAXIMUM PENALTY OF SIX (6) YEARS IMPRISONMENT AND A FINE NOT TO EXCEED THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($3,000) FOR CARRYING WEAPONS ON SCHOOL PROPERTY.)
Hazing

Subjecting others to abusive or ridiculous tricks or pranks is not allowed because it is harassing, potentially endangers the mental or physical health or safety of other students and interferes with the rights of others. Hazing is a serious disciplinary offense. Any student, whether individually or as part of a group action, or as part of a student organization, who engages in hazing will be subject to both severe disciplinary action and to possible criminal prosecution by the State of Tennessee.

Purchasing

Students are not to make purchases in the name of Johnson University without prior permission from appropriate university administrators.

Solicitors

Any student selling goods or services on campus must obtain prior permission from the Dean of Students.

Persons making campus collections for charity must also obtain prior permission from the Associate Dean of Students.

Campus collections for family crises and other emergencies may only be done through the Church On The Hill under the supervision of the Associate Dean of Students with the help of the resident assistants and resident directors.

School Property

Campus Facilities. Use of campus facilities, including recreational facilities and equipment, is limited to the Johnson community (students, faculty, staff, including immediate family members, as well as guests and alumni).

Guest Speakers. JUTN reserves the right to limit access to campus facilities for off-campus guest speakers to those invited by faculty, staff, administration, or recognized student groups.

Access to main buildings. The Eubanks Activity Center is open daily until curfew. The Phillips-Welshimer Building is open until curfew Monday-Friday with the Marble Hallway and access to the music practice room open until curfew Saturday-Sunday. Richardson Hall is open until 11 p.m. Monday-Friday and until 6 p.m. on Saturday. The Glass Memorial Library hours are posted at the library. Access to all buildings is limited to members of the Johnson campus community.

Children of campus residents must have proper identification (available from the student accounts office) to have access to campus buildings. Children younger than 13 years old must have adult supervision. Children 13 years old or older may access the main campus buildings.

Fitness Center. The exercise equipment is for members of the campus community age 16 and older. A training course is required for all users. Free weights are to be used only by those members of the campus community who have completed the training course. Access to the free weight room is restricted to authorized ID badges. Unauthorized access is prohibited and will result in a fine of up to $250. Free weights must never be used without a spotter. Muscle-type shirts, short shorts, bare midriffs, or tight and revealing clothing are not appropriate. Use the equipment at your own risk.

Ping Pong and Billiards. The minimum age limit for billiards is fifteen, or under the direct supervision of parents. There is no minimum age limit for ping pong, but children must be tall enough to use the equipment properly, and children younger than 13 years old must be accompanied by a parent.

Personal Behavior. Please do not climb on furniture, turn furniture over, or move large pieces of furniture from their setting. Rough and rowdy behavior is forbidden. Climbing on or rappelling from exterior walls of campus buildings will be treated as a disciplinary offense.

Defacing School Property. Carving names on furniture or writing on posted announcements is a major disciplinary offense.

Chapel Piano and Organ. The piano and organ in the auditorium of the Alumni Memorial Chapel are “off limits.” Permission to use the grand piano should be obtained in writing from a music instructor.

Children's Playgrounds. The playgrounds in Old Orchard Court and Gateway Court are provided for the children of non-traditional students and their guests, not for University students.

Skateboards and Roller Blades. Skateboards and roller blades are not allowed on the sidewalks, porches, or steps of any campus buildings, nor inside the buildings themselves.

Ponds and River. Swimming and rafting are not permitted. Ice skating is not permitted. The floodgates at Douglas Dam are opened daily without notice. The French Broad River rises rapidly (three to four feet in about 30 minutes). Persons caught in the current of the rising river are in a life-threatening situation.

Network Usage Policy

The following code of computing practice applies to everyone who uses the JUTN network or university computer systems. Disciplinary action for violating the code is governed by provisions in the Student Handbook, the Faculty and Administration Guidebook, the Staff Handbook, and the Computer Crimes Act of the State of Tennessee, sections 39-14-601 through 39-14-606. The Tennessee Code prohibits fraudulent and malicious use of computing systems and resources.

1. Only authorized users are granted access to any of the JUTN computing systems. An authorized user is any member of the administration, staff, faculty, or student body who has been assigned a user account consisting of a valid user ID and password. Family members of people in one of the above groups who are assigned user accounts by Campus IT are also authorized to use the JUTN computing systems.

2. You must use only the computer account which has been authorized for your use. You may not use someone else's account. If you have trouble using your account or if you need more than one account, contact Campus IT.

3. You are responsible for the use of your computer account. You should take precautions against others obtaining access to your computing resources. Do not make your account available to others for any purpose.

4. Although JUTN does not make a practice of monitoring email, JUTN reserves the right to retrieve the contents from Johnson owned computers such as email messages for legitimate reasons, as to find lost messages, to comply with investigations of wrongful acts, to respond to subpoenas, to stop the spread of viruses, or to recover from system failure. Additionally, pornography, gambling, and violation of copyright laws are stumbling blocks for many Christians. In order to protect members of the JUTN community, JUTN blocks sites which the administration has deemed inappropriate for Christians.

5. The following practices are unacceptable:
   - Attempting to circumvent the restrictions associated with your computer account.
   - Attempting to access files for which you do not have authorization or attempting to monitor others' network traffic without authorization.
   - Copying files or data belonging to the University without authorization. Written authorization from the Dean of Students must be obtained before one can copy programs belonging to the University.
   - Using the network to illegally transfer copyrighted material or to permit others to illegally transfer copyrighted material. It is JUTN’s policy to honor copyright restrictions and software licenses. Only software that has been legally obtained may be used on university computers.
   - Modifying system configurations on university-owned computers. Only Campus IT can perform or authorize such changes. Campus IT may remove personally owned hardware or software from university computers if they believe that it interferes with the computers' operation.
   - Using the network to harass others. This includes, but is not limited to, the use of anonymous or forged email, spam, and other unsolicited messages. Port scanning of systems (campus or Internet) is prohibited and considered harassment.
Using the network to post vulgar, profane, libelous, false, or malicious statements on weblogs, discussion groups, or other online forums hosted on either Johnson or off-campus servers.

6. To minimize the impact of your work on the work of others, do nothing that will prevent others' use of the facilities or deprive them of resources.
   - The use of peer-to-peer (P2P) file-sharing networks, such as Ares or Limewire, is prohibited. Such networks are used on a widespread basis to transfer pornography and to illegally transfer copyrighted material, and the use of such networks places an undue burden on the JUTN network. If you have any questions or concerns about this policy, please contact Campus IT. Legitimate BitTorrent downloads such as Linux disk images and game updates are permitted.

7. Students are responsible for making backups of their files and email account data.

8. Student workers should use departmentally assigned accounts when logging on to university staff computers. Students should not log on using their Student ID accounts.

9. Except as authorized, in writing or by email by JUTN, users are not to use the JUTN network for compensated outside work, the benefit of organizations not related to JUTN (except in connection with scholarly, creative or community service activities), or commercial or personal advertising.

10. Anyone who maliciously attempts to hinder the operation of or gain unauthorized access to the JUTN network or any computers on the network will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including prosecution in a court of law, suspension from the student body, or termination from employment.

11. Campus IT has the responsibility to protect fair access to network and Internet resources by all users and to implement, publicize, and enforce policy consistent with these rights. Accordingly, Campus IT may remove any user, service, or program from the network (without notice) that impedes with fair access pending an investigation and decision, or satisfactory resolution.
UNIT FIVE

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Introduction
Johnson is committed to the principle of justice as revealed in the Scriptures and to the practice of reasonable, fair, and appropriate disciplinary procedures. Johnson officials never hand down stiff sanctions just to make examples of wrongdoers, nor to express personal feelings of outrage and revenge. The degree and circumstance of the wrongdoing is carefully weighed, innocence or responsibility determined, and the appropriate sanction given in all good conscience before the Lord.

Obligations of University Officials
There are three guidelines followed by Johnson officials in applying sanctions. First, the sanction must be in direct proportion to the nature and degree of the wrong committed, neither more harsh nor more lenient than the violation would merit. Second, sanctions must be administered impartially. The Bible often warns God's people against showing respect for persons in matters of judgment. Third, sanctions are always administered in a spirit of Christian concern with a sense of compassion for the wrongdoer. Johnson officials take no pleasure in their disciplinary tasks. They act for the University, and not from their own feelings.

Student Obligations
Is there anything students can do in contributing to the establishment of equitable rules and their prompt and fair enforcement? The answer is "Yes." Good discipline is everybody's business, not just the University officials'. Christian students are not to stand by silently, showing no concern for the misconduct of their neighbors.

There are three things students can do to help. First, pray for all who are in positions of authority at Johnson University. We must pray for people in authority whether we chose them or agree with them or not.

Second, submit to the authority of your leaders. A student may consider a particular rule to be unfair. The student is free to express the objection. But if the rule is in the Student Handbook, even in their objections, students should respect for those who must enforce the rule. The use of derogatory or insulting terms when speaking of those in authority is not in keeping with the will of God.

Third, abide by the honor system. When you have knowledge of lying, cheating, or stealing on the part of another, but do nothing about it, you are endorsing sin. The Bible speaks of such passive behavior as "consenting" with evil (Psalm 50:18; Romans 1:32; Luke 11:48).

Jesus outlined a procedure for church discipline which can be adapted for use at JUTN (see Matthew 18:15-17). For example, suppose you see a young man cheating on an exam. Go to him privately, tell what you saw, and ask him to go voluntarily to his teacher and confess his cheating. Cheating voluntarily confessed will mean failure in the assignment, but probably no further action will need to be taken. If he refuses to do as you suggest and you are still convinced that he cheated, take one or two friends with you and confront the offender again. If he still refuses to do as you say, you have no other recourse than to report the incident to the teacher. Cheating not voluntarily confessed will lead not only to failure in the assignment, but to disciplinary action, which in turn could lead to failure in the course, and possibly to suspension from University. Remember what James said, "Whoever brings back a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins" (James 5:20, RSV).

Acceptance of the honor system means that students will neither give nor receive help on any examination. Students must take responsibility for each other in the use of term papers, notebooks, and reading reports. On the job, students are expected to take responsibility for each other in the handling of time cards and work assignments.
General Procedures

The Dean of Students is responsible for investigating, processing, and reviewing all alleged violations of campus regulations and complaints which are referred to the Student Life Office.

In order to guarantee students' rights to reasonable, fair, and appropriate procedures, a formal hearing process has been adopted for handling disciplinary matters. However, less serious violations may be settled by informal meetings and discussions. Even more serious violations can sometimes be settled by informal means, particularly when the penitent violator voluntarily initiates the process. In any event, a student’s right to a formal hearing does not preclude attempts to settle violations through informal meetings and discussions. Formal hearing procedures may only be necessary when such informal means are not satisfactory either to the students or to the University.

The discipline committee will hear cases of breach of good conduct except: (1) residence hall and dining hall minor violations; (2) any case which can be settled without the necessity of a formal hearing, thus leaving the jurisdiction of the case with the resident assistants, resident directors, Dean of Students, or other school officials, including teachers; (3) any case which the Dean of Students considers inappropriate for reasons of students' or others' health and safety. These exceptions cover the majority of disciplinary problems. In addition, all cases which involve sexual misconduct as defined by Title IX and the Clery Act are investigated and resolved using the policies and procedures outlined in Unit Six (pages 36-45).

A formal hearing as provided by the discipline committee is necessary only in the relatively few cases when there is a dispute concerning the responsibility of the accused party or the appropriateness of the punishment. In such circumstances both the accuser and the accused are protected by the intervention of a fair and impartial hearing system which can hear and consider both sides of the dispute before rendering judgment and prescribing a penalty.

When students face severe penalties, however, it is often advisable to proceed through a formal hearing process. In serious matters, if accused students wish to acknowledge their responsibility and waive a hearing, they are required to sign a written statement to that effect, with the understanding that they will accept the judgment of the discipline committee. The discipline committee affords the same reasonable, fair, and appropriate procedures as if the students were present in hearing evidence, weighing facts, and rendering judgment. Students merely waive their opportunity to present evidence or witnesses in their own defense.

The discipline committee consists of three faculty members and two student members nominated by the Student Government Association. The Dean of Students acts as chairman of the committee but does not vote.

Hearing Procedure

When a complaint or alleged violation is referred to the Dean of Students, he will begin by investigating the matter, attempting to assess the validity and seriousness of the charges.

In less serious matters the Dean of Students will meet with the student to see if the charges may be disposed of informally. In such a hearing there are no formal charges and no defense is required. The student is simply told that certain things have been heard about questionable behavior and the student is asked to tell what happened. The dean is especially interested in the student's academic record, Christian testimony, general attitude, maturity, and motivation for university work. If the student acknowledges responsibility and agrees to abide by whatever sanctions the dean may impose, the matter is closed. If such informal procedures are not satisfactory either to the student or to the dean, then formal proceedings will be started. The time and place of a hearing before the discipline committee will be scheduled.

Pending final action on the charges, the status of a student will not usually be altered. In extraordinary circumstances, for instance issues relating to the health and safety of the student or others, the student may be sanctioned pending the outcome of the case.

If students are to appear before the discipline committee, they will be informed of the charges against them, of their right to present witnesses and a defense in their own behalf, and to be represented at the hearing by a faculty advisor. They will be given one or two days to prepare their defense.
The usual order of a hearing is as follows: (1) charges in the presence of the accused; (2) evidence in support of the charges; (3) witnesses or depositions in support of the charges; (4) hearing of the accused; (5) evidence in support of the accused; (6) witnesses or depositions in support of the accused; (7) deliberation and finding of the discipline committee, excluding the presence of the accused; (8) penalty; (9) appearance of the accused to hear the decision. The Committee will render a decision based on a preponderance of evidence standard of whether it is more likely than not that the student violated university standards of conduct.

The committee may reach one of four decisions:
1. Responsible;
2. Not responsible;
3. Case dismissed for lack of evidence;
4. Case returned to the Dean of Students for further investigation because of new information.

Penalties are assigned only if students are found responsible. Students found responsible for second offenses may be subject to more severe penalties.

An official digest of the hearing will be maintained. This digest, with the exception of the digest of the deliberative process, will be available under the supervision of the Dean of Students to all parties to the hearing.

If accused students fail to answer the charges or appear at the hearings, their responsibility will be assumed, and the discipline committee will act in their absence.

Appeal Procedure

Depending on where and when students become involved in the disciplinary process, they may have the privilege of an appeal to the next higher authority. Appeals must be made in writing and have basis in at least one of these criteria:

- Procedural irregularities, including violation of JUTN’s published policies and procedures, sufficient to materially affect the fairness of the hearing. Procedural irregularities alone will not be sufficient to sustain an appeal unless found that irregularities denied the student a fair hearing.
- Lack of sufficient evidence to support the decision of the hearing authority
- New and relevant evidence not known to the student at the time of the hearing
- Imposition of a sanction which is either excessive or inadequate relative to the facts of the case.

Students may appeal the action of resident assistants to the resident director. Actions of a resident director may be appealed to the Dean of Students. Actions of Dean of Students may be appealed to the discipline committee (under which circumstances the Dean of Students will excuse himself from chairing the committee hearing). The committee or hearing officer may:

- affirm the original sanction,
- reverse the sanction and impose any new sanction the Committee deems appropriate, with or without additional conditions,
- reverse the original finding and remove all sanctions;

Actions of the discipline committee may be appealed through the grievance process outlined on page 51 of this handbook. The decision of the grievance committee is final.

Sanctions

Most minor infractions are handled by the resident assistants and resident directors. The sanctions at their disposal are reprimands, fines, and campus confinement. More serious infractions are usually referred to the Dean of Students and the discipline committee. The sanctions at their disposal are reprimands, fines, campus confinements, disciplinary probation, suspension and expulsion.
Additional conditions such as community service, reflective papers, or follow-up meetings with the Dean of Students (or designee) may be attached to Written Warnings, Fines, Disciplinary Probation, and Deferred Suspension. Where appropriate, the student may be referred for counseling, not as a disciplinary matter, but as a redemptive matter. Loss of vehicle privileges may be imposed.

Written Warning. This is the mildest form of action which may be taken against wrongdoers. First offenses of a minor nature can oftentimes be handled in this way. A student should understand that a written warning means that future violations of regulations will result in more stringent action. Additional conditions may apply (see above).

Fines. Fines may be the most appropriate sanction for some infractions. Fines may be fixed, as in traffic violations, or flexible, as in cases involving property damage. The business office is consulted before assessing fines for property damage. Additional conditions may apply (see above).

Disciplinary Probation. This is a severe type of sanction which places students "not in good standing." Students on probation cannot represent Johnson in any official capacity nor hold office in student organizations. For example, students on disciplinary probation cannot sing in the touring choir, participate in University sponsored groups, play varsity sports, hold class offices, SGA offices, or other offices in recognized student groups. Such probation indicates to students that violations of regulations while the probation is in effect will result in more stringent disciplinary action (in all probability, suspension).

Disciplinary probation may be imposed for any period of time up to one year. Additional conditions may apply (see above).

Deferred Suspension. This is a very severe type of sanction used for offenses serious enough to warrant suspension but where the offense is mitigated by circumstances specific to the case. Deferred suspension is typically limited to the period of time extending to the end of the semester, after which the student may be suspended, continued on deferred suspension, or placed on probation. Deferred suspension is not available to students in the final semester of their program and in no instance will be continued beyond the end of the next semester after imposition. During the period of deferred suspension, the student will have the opportunity to demonstrate the ability to live according to the community standards described in the University’s Student Handbook. A student who violates those community standards during the period of deferred suspension will be automatically suspended for a minimum of two semesters.

During a deferred suspension, the student is “not in good standing” with the University and cannot represent Johnson in any official capacity nor hold office in student organizations, cannot sing in the touring choir, participate in University sponsored groups, play varsity sports, hold class offices, SGA offices, or other office in recognized student groups. Additional conditions may apply (see above).

Suspension. This is a very severe sanction which lasts for the period of time determined by the discipline committee and until the conditions for readmission are satisfied. When placed on suspension, students are required to leave the campus within a time limit set by the discipline committee. During the duration of the sanction, suspended students are restricted from all University functions, including classes and extracurricular activities. To return to campus for any reason during the time of suspension, permission must be obtained in writing from the Dean of Students. The minimum duration of suspension is the remainder of a semester. The maximum duration is three years. Suspended students must obtain clearance from the discipline committee before they can be readmitted as students in good standing. As a penalty, suspension means loss of funds and loss of time. Students cannot graduate in the semester when they have been suspended. Under some circumstances, suspension might not prevent students from continuing their education by correspondence.

Expulsion. This form of dismissal is a termination of enrollment and is regarded as final. It is only imposed if it is generally felt that no conceivable contingency would bring about reinstatement of the student. It is rarely used because the discipline committee finds it difficult to say that a person can never change for the better.
Breaches of Good Conduct

Major Violations. The following categories of wrongdoing are regarded as most serious and result in severe sanctions: (1) plagiarism or academic cheating; (2) forgery or alteration of University records; (3) deliberate destruction of, damage to, defacing of, malicious misuse of, or abuse of University property; (4) assault and battery on another person or the threat thereof; (5) theft of the property of the University or any private individual; (6) fornication, adultery, or homosexual activity (including engaging in soliciting, condoning, supporting, or promoting such practices); (7) Title IX misconduct (including sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual violence, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual exploitation, gender-based harassment, indecent exposure; see full list of definitions on page 34); (8) use, possession, distribution, or sale of narcotics, illegal drugs, alcoholic beverages, marijuana, tobacco, smoking any substance in any form, or the abuse of legal substances; (9) use or possession of fireworks and firearms; (10) unauthorized entry into campus facilities; (11) reckless driving and speeding; (12) repeated minor violations; (13) failure to give truthful testimony; (14) false and malicious accusations; (15) posting vulgar, profane, libelous, false, or malicious statements on weblogs, discussion groups, or other online forums hosted on either university or off-campus servers, (16) insubordination; (17) unauthorized use of the JUTN computer system and network.

Minor Violations. The following categories of misconduct are regarded as less serious and result in lighter sanctions for first offenses: (1) disorderly conduct and disturbing the peace; (2) curfew violation; (3) parking violations; (4) violations of housing regulations; (5) violations of campus regulations.

Policy on Plagiarism and Related Practices

Plagiarism. Students commit plagiarism when they deliberately submit the writing of someone else as their own work. This offense may involve either submission of a paper written by someone else or directly copying from a printed source without using quotation marks or appropriate documentation.

For demonstrable plagiarism in a paper, students will receive a minimum penalty of a failing grade on that paper. Normally the penalty will include a failing grade for the course and a report of the offense to the Dean of Students, who may initiate action leading to suspension or dismissal.

Excessive Collaboration. To write more effectively, students (like most writers) may discuss their ideas and plans for papers with others or may read a paper (or a section of a paper) to friends making revisions based on their responses. Normally such collaboration improves writing.

Students may also seek help from a volunteer or hired typist. For instructors to gain an accurate representation of a student's work, the student must present the rough draft of any theme or research paper typed by someone other than the student. The final copy must mention the typist's name.

Either of the above practices carried to the extreme constitutes excessive collaboration and prevents instructors from recognizing the real ability and progress of their students, thus inhibiting effective teaching and learning. Students may receive a failing grade on a paper which shows unmistakable evidence of excessive collaboration. Since students often practice excessive collaboration without a deliberate intention to deceive, a professor, after conferring with the student, may allow a rewrite of the paper.

Insufficient Documentation. Honesty and courtesy require that writers acknowledge their debt for information and opinions they draw from other sources. Documentation provides both an acknowledgment of this debt and a kind of support for the ideas expressed in a paper. Appropriate documentation may range from the mere mention of a name or title to the extensive footnotes and bibliography required in a fully documented paper.

Insufficient or inaccurate documentation constitutes a serious weakness in a paper and normally results in a lowered grade. Students may receive a failing grade on a paper where insufficient documentation overwhelms the communication.

Inadequate Paraphrase. In paraphrasing, students should carefully change the words and sentence structure of the original source while retaining the original sense of the source's meaning. Students must learn the ability to paraphrase. Usually inadequate paraphrase represents a lack of knowledge and skill on the part of the student rather than a deliberate attempt to deceive.
Professors will treat inadequate paraphrase like any other writing deficiency, provided it does not also involve insufficient documentation. Students may receive a failing grade on a paper where inadequate paraphrase makes up most of the communication. In such instances, professors may require the student to rewrite the paper. Inadequate paraphrase without documentation usually constitutes plagiarism.

UNIT SIX

STATE AND FEDERAL POLICIES

Student Records

Privacy. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (also known as the "Buckley Amendment"), as it affects students at JUTN, requires: (1) that JUTN provide students access to official education records; (2) that students be given an opportunity to challenge such records if they are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate; (3) that written consent of students be obtained before releasing personally identifiable data about students from records to other than a specified list of exceptions; and (4) that students be notified of these rights and policies.

Permanent Records. JUTN keeps only one official permanent file on each student. The files are kept by the Registrar. Papers and forms are kept in locked, fire-resistant file cabinets. Computer records are kept on restricted, password protected, long-life storage media. A complete file contains the following records: (1) application form; (2) transcripts (high school, other universities, and Johnson University); (3) standardized test results (ACT scores, CEEB scores, and the like); (4) medical records, and (5) actions of the credentials committee (primarily academic probation letters). These are the records regarded as essential for guiding the personal and educational growth of the student. Data from these records are needed for educational, vocational, and personal counseling; for legitimate research purposes; and for writing letters of recommendation.

Temporary Records. Several kinds of records are kept temporarily with the student's official file. (1) Confidential letters of recommendation received by JUTN as part of the admissions procedure are kept until the student's application has been processed. Letters of recommendation are destroyed after processing to protect their confidentiality. (2) Disciplinary actions are kept in a sealed envelope to be opened only by the Provost, Dean of Students, Registrar, or faculty. These records are destroyed when a student graduates. The student may petition the Dean of Students to have such records destroyed sooner, if the conditions of the disciplinary sanction have been met. The information contained in the confidential envelope is released only by the consent of the student, by lawful subpoena, or by extraordinary circumstances threatening the health and safety of the student or others. (3) Memoranda other than these which find their way into the official file are usually disposed of once the reason for their existence no longer pertains.

Access Rights. Students sometimes wonder who has access to their official records. (1) The student himself has access. (2) Anyone to whom the student gives written consent has access. (3) Johnson University officials, including teachers, have access. (4) Officials of other schools in which the student seeks to enroll have access. (5) Authorized representatives of the United States Department of Education have access. (6) Organizations conducting research considered beneficial to the University may be granted access if such studies guarantee the privacy and anonymity of the students. (7) Accrediting organizations have access to carry out their accrediting functions. (8) Parents of dependent students have access. (9) In an emergency, appropriate persons will be given access if the knowledge of such information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other persons. A record of access is kept with each student's file which shows the use made of the file by anyone other than a university official or teacher.

Granting Access. Granting frequent access to student records can be unnecessarily bothersome. Students should be motivated by something other than idle curiosity before asking to see their official records. When giving consent of access to others, the student is expected to do it in writing, specifying which records are to be released, the reasons for such release, and to whom. Requests for transcripts must be accompanied by a fee (see Registrar).

Limitations on Access. There are limitations on access. (1) Confidential letters about students are available to no one except Johnson University officials. Students have no access to their reference letters because the letters are destroyed after processing, unless students have waived their right to access. (2)
Some records are regarded as strictly private. Neither students nor Johnson University officials have access to private records. For example, faculty or staff members may take notes at meetings or during conversations and interviews with students. These records are regarded as extensions of the memory of the individual who keeps them, and as such are his or her private property. It would be impractical to forbid the keeping of such records, to forbid the making of decisions based on such records, or to expect that they be treated in the same manner as the official records of the institution. People keeping such records are responsible for preventing access to them by others. (3) Some records are limited by their nature to a single function. Neither students nor officials outside that function have access to those records. For instance, financial records of students and their parents are used exclusively by the business office and the financial aid director. Auditing procedures are conducted in such a way that confidentiality is protected. (4) Third parties who are given legitimate access to a student's records are expected to protect the student's right of privacy.

Challenges. Students have the right to challenge the content of their official education records. If any of the contents are believed to be inaccurate, misleading, or inappropriate, students will be given the opportunity to have the contents in question corrected or deleted. Informal proceedings should be attempted first in settling any disputes students may have over their official records. An informal meeting or discussion with the person responsible for entering questionable contents into the record may be all that is necessary to correct the record to everyone's satisfaction. Formal procedures are necessary only when informal means are not satisfactory either to the student or to the institution. A formal hearing will proceed as follows: (1) The hearing will be conducted and decided within a reasonable period of time following a written request to the Registrar for the hearing; (2) the hearing will be conducted, and the decision rendered, by an official who does not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing; (3) the student will be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the issues in question; and (4) the decision will be rendered in writing within a reasonable period of time after the conclusion of the hearing. It is believed that such formal procedures will guarantee the student's right to a reasonable, fair, and appropriate hearing.

Students have the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the [School] to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC  20202

Directory Information. Several categories of information have been designated by JUTN as "Directory Information." This is information which is in the public domain. Such information is given informally, without student consent and without written request, oftentimes by telephone. Directory information includes the following: the student's name; home address; home church, campus location; telephone; email address; date and place of birth; major field of study; participation in officially recognized activities, sports, and Christian service; weight and height of members of athletic teams; dates of attendance; degrees and awards received; the most recent previous institution attended by the student; and present student status (classification, whether currently enrolled in good standing or on probation, and, if suspended, whether suspended for academic reasons or for disciplinary reasons). If students want any of this information withheld, they must petition the Dean of Students in writing, specifying which information should be withheld without a student's consent.

Students may expect employees or contractors of the University to record student images or voices (for instance, photos during student activities, audio or video of chapel services, Media Department video productions, etc). JUTN reserves the right to:

- Record student images and/or voices on analog or digital video, audio, film, photograph or any other medium.
• Use the student’s name, likeness, and voice in connection with the recording.
• Exhibit or distribute such recording in whole or in part without restrictions or limitation for any educational or promotional purpose which Johnson University, and those acting pursuant to its authority, deem appropriate.
• Use the aforementioned media without remuneration.

Students may opt out of this policy by contacting the Academic Office.

Copyright Policy
The Copyright Act of 1976 and the Digital Millennium Copyright Act protect original works of authorship (such as writing, music, art, video productions, computer programs) as an incentive for creativity by allowing an author to profit from his or her work. There is a "fair use" provision in the Act that balances the need to protect the intellectual property rights of the author with the public's need for free and open discussion.

Summary of Civil and Criminal Penalties for Violation of Federal Copyright Laws
Copyright infringement is the act of exercising, without permission or legal authority, one or more of the exclusive rights granted to the copyright owner under section 106 of the Copyright Act (Title 17 of the United States Code). These rights include the right to reproduce or distribute a copyrighted work. In the file-sharing context, downloading or uploading substantial parts of a copyrighted work without authority constitutes an infringement.

Penalties for copyright infringement include civil and criminal penalties. In general, anyone found liable for civil copyright infringement may be ordered to pay either actual damages or "statutory" damages affixed at not less than $750 and not more than $30,000 per work infringed. For "willful" infringement, a court may award up to $150,000 per work infringed. A court can, in its discretion, also assess costs and attorneys' fees. For details, see Title 17, United States Code, Sections 504, 505.

Willful copyright infringement can also result in criminal penalties, including imprisonment of up to five years and fines of up to $250,000 per offense.

For more information, please see the Web site of the U.S. Copyright Office at www.copyright.gov, especially their FAQ's at www.copyright.gov/help/faq.

The use of peer-to-peer (P2P) file-sharing networks, such as Ares or Limewire, is prohibited. Such networks are used on a widespread basis to transfer pornography and to illegally transfer copyrighted material. If you have any questions or concerns about this policy, please contact Campus IT. Legitimate BitTorrent downloads such as Linux disk images and game updates are permitted. Unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material, including P2P file sharing, may subject a student to civil and criminal penalties.

P2P Alternatives. Students are encouraged to use legal means to obtain digital copies of audio and video files that are under copyright. Such alternatives include iTunes, Rhapsody, or Hulu, among others.
Security Policies and Procedures

Introduction. JUTN is committed to creating an environment that will be conducive to the safety and welfare of the JUTN community.

Security Responsibilities

Crime Control. JUTN is registered with the state of Tennessee as a proprietary security organization and contracts with a security service to provide licensed security personnel. University Security personnel can request assistance from the Knox County Sheriff’s Department for incidents that require resources not available to university personnel and will summon the assistance of other agencies to provide services that require special resources. University Security personnel receive and investigate all incident reports and refer crimes and offenses to local law enforcement authorities. The sheriff’s department makes occasional patrols through the campus and responds to 911 calls made from the campus.

Reporting Crime. Students and employees of JUTN have the right to report directly to the Knox County Sheriff’s Department any campus crime against their person or property. Students and employees have the responsibility to report the same to University officials. Generally speaking, the procedure for reporting crime is similar to the procedure for reporting other emergencies on campus.

How to Get Help. If you are a victim or a witness of a crime of violence on campus, such as aggravated or sexual assault, call 911, and ask for help from the Knox County Sheriff’s Department. Then contact University officials as described in the next paragraph.

Emergency Services. Dial 251-2222 to report security concerns, fire, and non-emergency medical injuries. Dial 911 to report an emergency medical conditions, vehicle accident with injury, etc.

If you need someone to assist you in making contact with security, ask your resident director or a resident assistant for help.

When the immediate emergency is past, the office security office in the plant services building has forms for the victims, witnesses, and investigators of campus crime to use in filing complaints pursuant to the FBI’s Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) and data collection guidelines.

General Responsibilities. JUTN officials are responsible both for responding to reports of campus crime and for collecting, analyzing, and reporting crime statistics as required by federal and state laws. A summary of crime statistics for the most recent three year period is included in Table 1.

Security Awareness

Public Buildings. Public buildings (Phillips-Welshimer Building, Eubanks Activities Center, Richardson Hall, Gally Commons, Old Main, Library, Chapel, Old Gym and Swimming Pool) will be open only during business hours and/or at other announced times. Using facilities after hours requires special permission in advance.

Private Buildings. Residence halls for single students (Brown, Johnson and Clark Halls) are not open to the public at any time unless advance special event announcements have been made. Outside doors automatically lock at curfew. Interfering with this policy is a disciplinary offense. When the residence halls are open, only the main lobby of each residence hall is open to members of the opposite sex. Visitors of the same sex are welcome elsewhere in the residence halls only by invitation or permission. University maintenance shops are off limits to everyone except University employees and their escorted guests.

Identification. University employees assigned to tasks in a residence hall shall identify themselves to the resident director when initially responding to a job order. Each worker shall have an ID badge appropriately displayed. When contracts bring workers from off campus into a residence hall, they will be announced by University officials beforehand to the resident director. Wherever possible, advance notice will be made by the resident director to the resident assistants whose areas are affected. Guests of JUTN staying in the residence halls will be identified by written notification to the resident directors from the public relations office.
Education. The JUTN administration will assist the campus community to become aware of possible sources of, and ways to prevent, campus crime. Information on crime prevention will be made through special bulletins, announcements, and workshops. JUTN will also respond to specific needs from time to time, and will provide "timely notice" crime prevention warnings to the community whenever appropriate.

Words of Caution and Advice. To a large extent, students are responsible for their own security and the security of others in the residence halls. Residence hall occupants should keep first floor doors and windows locked after curfew. Residents should report for disciplinary action the names of any students who prop outside doors open after curfew. Students should write down their ideas and turn in their suggestions to the physical plant office for making the campus more secure.

Clery Disclosure Information

Federal Reporting Requirements

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (20 USC § 1092(f); TCA 49-7-2206) is the landmark federal law, originally known as the Campus Security Act, that requires colleges and universities across the United States to disclose information annually by October 1 about crime on and around their campuses. The law is tied to an institution's participation in federal student financial aid programs, and it applies to most institutions of higher education, both public and private. The Act is enforced by the United States Department of Education.

The Campus Security Act was amended in 1992 to add a requirement that schools afford the victims of campus sexual assault certain basic rights and was amended again in 1998 to expand the reporting requirements. The 1998 amendments also formally named the law in memory of Jeanne Clery. Subsequent amendments in 2000 and 2008 added provisions dealing with registered sex offender notification and campus emergency response. The 2008 amendments also added a provision to protect crime victims, "whistleblower" and others from retaliation. The 2013 amendments expanded the Clery-reportable crimes to include stalking, dating violence, and domestic violence. For more information on the details of the Clery Act, see the Johnson University website.

The 2008 Reauthorization of the Higher Education Act requires institutions with on-campus student housing facilities to collect fire statistics, publish an Annual Fire Safety Report, and keep a “fire log.” Even though this law is separate from the Clery Act, the dissemination regulations of the Annual Fire Safety Report are very similar to those of the Clery Act. Historically, Johnson University Florida has published both annual reports together as one combined report. In accordance with federal regulations, fire statistics are reported annually to the U.S. Department of Education’s Office of Postsecondary Education by way of the web-based Campus Safety and Security Survey.

Campus Emergency Notifications

The Higher Education Authorization Act of 2008 requires institutions of higher education to formulate policies and procedures for notifying the campus community concerning significant emergencies or dangerous situations involving an immediate threat to the safety of the community.

Johnson University utilizes the Nixle Community Information Service is built exclusively to provide secure and reliable communications. Its authenticated service connects city agencies to citizens (or, in this case, university officials to students) in real-time, delivering information to residents of geographically targeted areas and neighborhoods.

Information can be received online and via email for free. Residents receive messages by mobile phone as part of their text messaging plan (otherwise standard text message rates apply). The system is simple to use and there is no spam. Johnson University will only use this system to announce a campus emergency situation or to test the system (at least one test per year, perhaps more frequent tests).

General Information for Responding to Campus Emergencies

In addition to specific instructions which may be sent through Campus Emergency Notifications, students, employees and guests will find general instructions posted on brightly colored posters in classrooms, residence halls, and other common areas for responding to various emergencies, including fire, medical emergency, intruder/lockdown, tornado, earthquake, and winter weather conditions. Information includes a listing of designated safe areas for inclement weather conditions.
Missing Student Notification Policy

Introduction. The purpose of this policy is to outline the procedures JUTN will follow in response to a missing student report, as required by the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008. Each student will be informed annually of the following notification procedure:

Registering a Confidential Emergency Contact. Each student will be given the opportunity to identify an emergency contact to be notified within 24 hours after the student is deemed missing. This information will be collected by the Student Life Office along with other directory information, but is not considered to be directory information.

Deeming a Student Missing. A student may be deemed missing if it is reported to appropriate university personnel (Resident Manager, Resident Assistant, or Campus Security) that the student has been unreachable via personal contact, telephone, email or other means of electronic communication for 24 hours or more.

Emergency Contact Procedures. Missing persons should be immediately reported to a Resident Manager, Resident Assistant, or Campus Security. Campus Security or the Resident Manager will contact the Dean of Students. Once a student has been reported as missing, the following emergency contact procedures will be initiated the Dean of Students (or authorized representative) no later than 24 hours after a student is deemed missing:

- The student’s confidential emergency contact will be notified that the student is missing.
- A missing person report will be filed with the Knox County Sheriff’s Department and the Tennessee State Police.
- If the missing student is under 18 years of age and not emancipated, the student’s parents will be notified.
- Other campus offices having a need to know (including, but not limited to, the President’s Cabinet, other Residence Life Staff, etc.) will be notified.

Annual Notification. Annual notification will be placed in the Johnson University Tennessee Student Handbook, available on the JUTN web site, and in the JUTN email announcement sheet.
TITLE IX AND CLERY POLICY

Policy. It is the policy of Johnson University that sexual misconduct is unacceptable and will not be tolerated; therefore, sexual misconduct committed by or upon a Johnson University student or employee is strictly prohibited. Reported violations of this policy will be investigated thoroughly and resolved promptly.

Rationale. Relationships between men and women at Johnson University are guided by Biblical principles of respect for other's feelings, rights, and responsibilities. The university is committed to its moral, educational, and legal obligations to provide policies, procedures, and programs that protect students and employees from sexual misconduct (both on and off campus) and to establish an environment in which unacceptable behavior will not be tolerated. This policy complies with the following federal laws:

- Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1681, et seq., which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any federally funded education program or activity
- Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA), an amendment to the federal Clery Act and companion to Title IX

Scope. This policy applies to all Johnson University students (including campus residents, commuters, and online) and employees. It also applies to third parties involved in an act of sexual misconduct by or upon a Johnson University student or employee. It applies whether the act of sexual misconduct was committed on or off campus (both Tennessee and Florida campuses), regardless of whether or not the sexual misconduct is the subject of a criminal investigation.

Non-Discrimination Policy. Johnson is a Christian university affiliated with Christian Churches and Churches of Christ. Its mission is to educate students for “Christian ministries and other strategic vocations framed by the Great Commission in order to extend the Kingdom of God among all nations.” Accordingly, Johnson seeks to hire and educate individuals who share its vision and core values to carry out that mission. Johnson University does not unlawfully discriminate in admissions, educational programs, or employment practices.

Johnson University does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, national origin, age, handicap, veteran status, genetic information, or political affiliation in provision of educational opportunities, programs and activities, or employment opportunities and benefits, pursuant to the requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and subsequent amendments to that act, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 and subsequent re-authorization of that act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and subsequent amendments to that act.

Direct questions concerning the non-discrimination policy to Dr. Mark F. Pierce, Vice Provost for Research and Planning, Johnson University, 7900 Johnson Drive, Box 67, Knoxville, TN 37998, telephone: 865-251-2405, email: mpierce@johnsonu.edu.

For the Tennessee and Online campuses, inquiries related to Title IX may be referred to the lead Title IX Coordinator, Dr. Mark F. Pierce, Vice Provost for Research and Planning, Johnson University Tennessee, 7900 Johnson Drive, Box 67, Knoxville, TN 37998, telephone: 865-251-2405, email: mpierce@johnsonu.edu.

For the Florida campus, inquiries related to Title IX may be referred to the branch Title IX Coordinator, Garrett Thompson, Assistant Director of Academic Support and Career Services, Johnson University Florida, 1011 Bill Beck Boulevard, Kissimmee, FL 34744, telephone: 407-569-1340, email:
Sexual Misconduct Definitions. Examples of sexual misconduct prohibited by the university include, but are not limited to, sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual violence, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, gender-based harassment, indecent exposure, and any other illegal sexual conduct. [The university’s editorial update to quoted source material appears in square brackets.]

a. Sex Discrimination. Sex discrimination involves treating someone (an applicant, student, or employee) unfavorably because of that person's sex.[/gender]. Source: U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) web site, specifically located on http://www.eeoc.gov/laws/types/sex.cfm.

b. Sexual Harassment. Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature; including unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination which is illegal under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 for employees and under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 for students. It has been defined by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) as follows:

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitutes sexual harassment when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or a condition of an individual's employment [or education], (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment [or educational] decisions affecting such individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work [or academic] performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working [or educational] environment. Source: Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) regulations, 29 C.F.R., Section 1604.11(a).

Examples [of sexual harassment] include, but are not limited to, unwelcome sexual advances; repeated sexually oriented kidding, teasing, joking, or flirting; verbal abuse of a sexual nature; graphic commentary about an individual's body, sexual prowess, or sexual deficiencies; derogatory or demeaning comments about women in general, whether sexual or not; leering, whistling, touching, pinching, or brushing against another's body; offensive crude language; or displaying objects or pictures which are sexual in nature that would create hostile or offensive work[, educational,] or living environments. Such conduct is coercive and threatening and creates an atmosphere that is not conducive to teaching, learning, and working. Source: American Council on Education's publication entitled "Sexual Harassment on Campus: A Policy and Program on Deterrence."

c. Sexual Assault. Sexual assault means coerced or non-consensual sexual intercourse, sexual activity, or sexual conduct against the victim’s will. Sexual assault includes rape, sexual battery, sexual coercion, and sexual exploitation. For Clery purposes, sexual assault is defined as an offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI’s Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program.

d. Sexual Violence. Sexual violence is a form of sexual harassment. Sexual violence means any incident of rape; sexual battery; lewd or lascivious act committed upon or in the presence of a person younger than 16 years of age; luring or enticing a child under the age of 12 into a structure, dwelling, or conveyance for other than a lawful purpose; sexual performance by a child; or any other forcible felony wherein a sexual act is committed or attempted, regardless of whether criminal charges based on the incident were filed, reduced, or dismissed by prosecuting authorities.
e. Stalking. Stalking is willfully, maliciously, and repeatedly following, harassing, or cyberstalking another person. Aggravated stalking includes a credible threat to the person or failure to follow an injunction for protection or other court-imposed prohibition against repeat violence toward the person. For Clery purposes, stalking is defined as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to (a) fear for the person’s safety or the safety of others or (b) suffer substantial emotional distress.

f. Dating Violence. Dating violence means violence between individuals who have or have had a continuing and significant relationship of a romantic or intimate nature. For Clery purposes, stalking is defined as violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.

g. Domestic Violence. Domestic violence means any assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, sexual assault, sexual battery, stalking, aggravated stalking, kidnapping, false imprisonment, or any criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death of one family or household member by another family or household member. For Clery purposes, domestic violence is defined as a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed (a) by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim; (b) by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common; (c) by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner; (d) by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred, or (e) by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

h. Sexual Exploitation. Sexual exploitation means taking the advantage of sexuality and attractiveness of a person to make a personal gain or profit (i.e., coercing someone into prostitution). It is the abuse of a position of vulnerability, differential power, or trust for sexual purposes.

i. Gender-based Harassment. Gender-based harassment is an act of verbal, nonverbal, or physical aggression, intimidation, or hostility based on sex or sex-stereotyping, even if that act does not involve conduct of a sexual nature.

j. Indecent Exposure. Indecent exposure means exposing or exhibiting one’s sexual organs in public or on the private premises of another, or so near thereto as to be seen from such private premises, in a vulgar or indecent manner, or to be naked in public.

k. Any other illegal sexual conduct that is not explicitly defined above.

Other Related Definitions.

1) Consent. Consent is a voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity. Someone who is incapacitated cannot consent. Incapacitation may occur due to the use of drugs or alcohol, when a person is asleep or unconscious, or because of an intellectual or other disability that prevents the person from having the capacity to give consent. Past consent does not imply future consent. Silence or an absence of resistance does not imply consent. Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another. Consent can be withdrawn at any time. Coercion, force, or threat of either invalidates consent.

2) Hostile environment caused by sexual harassment. “[A] hostile environment has been created … if sexually harassing conduct by an employee, another student, or a third party is sufficiently serious that it denies or limits a student’s ability to participate in or benefit from the school’s program based on sex” (p. 5, U.S. Department of Education, Revised Sexual Harassment Guidance: Harassment of Students by School Employees, Other Students, or Third Parties, published January 2001). This standard would be applied to the work place in the case of an employee.

3) Intimidation. Intimidation means making a person timid or fearful; compelling or deterring a person by threats.

4) Responsible Employee. A “responsible employee” is any employee who has the authority to take action to redress sexual misconduct, who has been given the duty to report to appropriate university officials about incidents of sexual violence or any other misconduct by students, or who a student could reasonably believe has this authority or responsibility. Responsible employees receive specialized training annually. Responsible employees include university administrators, Student Services personnel (including Resident Assistants), athletic coaches, Human Resources personnel, and Campus Security personnel.

5) Retaliation. It is unlawful to retaliate against anyone in any way, especially by intimidation or assault, for articulating a concern about sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, or sex discrimination. The university prohibits retaliation against those who file a complaint or third-party report or those who otherwise participate in the investigative and/or disciplinary process. The university will take strong responsive action if retaliation occurs.

6) Title IX Coordinator. For the Tennessee and Online campuses, the lead Title IX Coordinator is Dr. Mark F. Pierce, Vice Provost for Research and Planning, Johnson University Tennessee, 7900 Johnson Drive, Box 67, Knoxville, TN 37998, telephone: 865-251-2405, email: mpierce@johnsonu.edu. For the Florida campus, the branch Title IX Coordinator is Garrett Thompson, Assistant Director of Academic Support and Career Services, Johnson University Florida, 1011 Bill Beck Boulevard, Kissimmee, FL 34744, telephone: 407-569-1340, email: gthompson@johnsonu.edu. Core responsibilities of the lead Title IX Coordinator include overseeing the university’s response to Title IX reports and complaints, identifying and addressing any pattern or systemic problem revealed by such reports and complaints, and evaluating an alleged victim’s confidentiality request, if one is made. Core responsibilities of the branch Title IX Coordinator include overseeing the university’s response to Title IX reports and complaints made on the Florida branch campus and evaluating an alleged victim’s confidentiality request, if one is made.

Rights of Accuser and Accused. The following rights apply to both the accuser (alleged victim) and the accused (alleged perpetrator):

- The right to investigation and appropriate resolution of a credible complaint of sexual misconduct made in good faith to university administrators
- The right to be treated with respect by university officials
- The right to have university policies and procedures followed without material deviation
- The right to be fully informed of the nature, rules, and procedures of the campus conduct process
- The right to be informed in advance, when possible, of any public release of information regarding the complaint, except in cases where university officials are required to make a timely warning to the campus community
- The right to written notification to students and employees about existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, or other services available for victims, both on campus and in the community
- The right to review all documentary evidence available regarding the complaint, subject to the privacy limitations imposed by state and federal law, at least 48 hours prior to the hearing
- The right to be informed of the names of all witnesses who will be called to give testimony, within 48 hours of the hearing, except in cases where a witness’ identity will not be revealed to the accused for compelling safety reasons (this exception does not include the name of the alleged victim/complainant, which will always be revealed to the accused)
- The right to a hearing closed to the public
- The right to have complaints heard by conduct and appeals officers who have received annual sexual misconduct adjudication training
- The right to a conduct panel comprised of representative of both genders
• The right to petition that any member of the conduct body be removed on the basis of bias
• The right for the same opportunity to have another person present, in a support or advisory role, during a university disciplinary hearing to accompany and assist in the university hearing process, according to student conduct hearing policies and procedures
• The right to have the university compel the presence of student, faculty, and staff witnesses, and the opportunity to ask questions of witnesses (indirectly through and at the discretion of the hearing chair), and the right to challenge documentary evidence
• The right not to have irrelevant prior sexual history admitted as evidence in a university hearing
• The right to make an impact statement at the campus conduct proceeding and to have that statement considered by the conduct body in determining its sanction
• The right to appeal the finding and sanction of the conduct body, in accordance with the standards for appeal established by the university

The following rights apply only to the accuser (alleged victim):
• The right not to be discouraged by university officials from reporting an assault to both on-campus and off-campus authorities
• The right to be informed by university officials of options to notify proper law enforcement authorities, including local police, and the option to be assisted by university authorities in notifying such law enforcement authorities, if the victim so chooses. This also includes the right not to report to law enforcement authorities, if this is the victim’s desire.
• The right to written notification of options for, available assistance in, and how to request changes to academic, living, transportation, and working situations or protective measures after an alleged incident, if so requested by the victim and if such changes are reasonably available. No formal complaint or investigation, either campus or criminal, need occur before this option is available. Accommodations may include:
  o Change of a student resident’s housing to a different on-campus location
  o Assistance from university support staff in completing the relocation
  o Arranging to dissolve a housing contract and pro-rating a housing refund
  o Exam or assignment rescheduling
  o Taking an “Incomplete” grade for a course
  o Transferring to a different course section
  o Temporary withdrawal
  o Alternative course completion options
  o Change in working location and/or supervisor
  o Change in work duties and/or responsibilities
• The right to preservation of privacy, to the extent possible and allowed by law
• The right not to have released to the public any personally identifiable information about the accuser/complainant, without his or her consent
• The right NOT to have any complaint of sexual assault mediated (as opposed to adjudicated)
• The right to a university no-contact order against another student who has engaged in or threatened to engage in stalking, threatening, harassing, or other improper behavior that presents a danger to the welfare of the complaining student, witnesses, or others
• The right to give testimony in a university hearing by means other than being in the same room with the accused
• The right to ask the investigators to identify and question relevant witnesses, including expert witnesses
• The right to be present for all testimony given and evidence presented before the conduct body
• The right to be informed of the outcome and sanction(s) of any disciplinary hearing involving sexual assault, usually within 24 hours of the decision being made
The following rights apply only to the accused (alleged perpetrator):

- The right to a timely written notice of the alleged violation contained within the complaint, including the nature of the violation and possible sanctions
- The right to a fundamentally fair hearing on the complaint, including timely notice of the hearing date and adequate time for preparation
- The right to a campus conduct outcome based solely on the evidence presented during the conduct process. Such evidence shall be credible, relevant, based in fact, and without prejudice.
- The right to written notice of the outcome of the hearing and the sanction(s) imposed by the conduct body

Confidentiality. Although every effort will be made to keep a complaint confidential and to protect the privacy of individuals, it is regrettable that confidentiality and anonymity may have to give way to the university’s obligation to investigate and take appropriate action, especially if the university is required to provide a timely warning of a Clery-reportable campus crime or an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees. When necessary, university officials will make a timely warning to the campus community (as required by federal regulations) unless issuing the notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible university officials, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency (as permitted by federal regulations).

The university encourages our professional or pastoral counselors among the faculty and staff to inform persons they are counseling (when the counselor deems it appropriate) about procedures for confidential reporting so that Clery-reportable crimes may be included in the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

The university will complete publicly available recordkeeping, including Clery Act reporting and disclosures, without the inclusion of personally identifying information about the victim and maintain as confidential any accommodations or protective measures provided to the victim, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the university to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

TITLE IX AND CLERY GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Implicit in the following Title IX grievance procedures is a provision that allows the complaining party to avoid her or his immediate work supervisor or faculty advisor if that person is the source of the problem. It is understood, of course, that formal channels may not be needed except when earlier attempts at private and informal resolution fail. However, in the case of alleged sexual assault or sexual misconduct, it is unnecessary and, most likely, inappropriate for an alleged victim to attempt informal resolution with the alleged perpetrator. In such a case, the formal grievance procedure should be initiated immediately.

Reporting Procedures. Formal reporting procedures include the victim or eye-witness of an act of sexual misconduct initiating a criminal complaint, an institutional complaint, and/or a report to a responsible employee (including the Title IX Coordinator). Alternative reporting options include a victim’s or eye-witness’ privileged or confidential disclosures to a professional or pastoral counselor.

A victim or eye-witness of sexual misconduct by or upon a Johnson University student or employee must first go to a place of safety and then immediately report the incident to a responsible employee, regardless of the time of day or night. The complaint will then be turned over to the Title IX Coordinator for investigation and processing through to conclusion.

Time is especially critical if a crime of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking has occurred. In such a case, the victim should not bathe until physical evidence of the assault can be obtained by medical personnel or law enforcement officers. It is important to preserve all physical evidence for examination by a physician that may assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred or may be helpful in obtaining a protection order, particularly if there were no witnesses. If such a crime has occurred, the university will take prompt and effective steps to end the violence, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects. When deemed necessary, the university will take steps to protect the complainant, including interim steps taken prior to the final outcome of the investigation.

Upon the victim’s request, a specially trained Student Services (in the case of a student) or Human Resources (in the case of an employee) staff member will assist the victim in notifying local law enforcement of the incident, if the victim so chooses; guide the victim through the available options; and support the victim in his or her decisions related to the incident.

If a victim or eye-witness desires to make an anonymous report, the university’s ability to respond will be limited by the confidentiality request. In certain cases, strict confidentiality is not possible because of federal Clery Act requirements to report certain crimes, including but not limited to the more serious forms of sexual misconduct. Each reported Clery crime is evaluated on a case-by-case basis to determine whether or not the university must issue a timely warning to the campus community about that particular criminal incident. If confidentiality is requested, every effort will be made to keep the name and location of the alleged victim and/or witnesses confidential. Ultimately, confidentiality requests are decided by the Title IX Coordinator.

The university is obligated under the federal Clery Act to report certain crimes that occur on campus, in a non-campus building or property, or on public property within the reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution on its annual campus crime report provided to the U.S. Department of Education. The university is also obligated to issue timely warnings to the campus community about certain crimes that have already occurred but may continue to pose a serious or ongoing threat to students and/or employees.

Investigation Procedures. Reported sexual misconduct of any kind will be adequately, reliably, and thoroughly investigated, regardless of whether or not the incident is the subject of a separate criminal investigation. A victim of sexual misconduct has the right to file a criminal complaint with the appropriate local law enforcement agency, if they desire to do so. The filing of a criminal complaint will not replace or hinder the university’s investigation of a sexual misconduct violation. A victim of sexual misconduct may elect to have the investigation proceed through the criminal justice system, the university’s disciplinary process, or both.

A Title IX investigation begins with the initial report of sexual misconduct made to a responsible employee. It is the duty of the responsible employee to notify the Title IX Coordinator immediately of any report of sexual misconduct made by a University student, University employee, or third-party. The Title IX Coordinator will either lead the investigation or appoint a lead investigator to thoroughly investigate the claims made in the initial report.

Throughout the course of an investigation, both the accused and the accuser will have an equal opportunity to present relevant witnesses and other evidence. The investigation and any subsequent disciplinary hearing will be conducted impartially. Any real or perceived conflict of interest between the fact-finder or decision-maker and the parties involved in a complaint will be disclosed and resolved immediately. A prompt and equitable resolution of a sexual misconduct complaint will be made using a preponderance of the evidence standard to evaluate the complaint (i.e., it is more likely than not that sexual misconduct occurred). “In each case, the issue is whether the harassment rises to a level that it denies or limits a student’s ability to participate in or benefit from the school’s program based on sex” (p. 5, U.S. Department of Education, Revised Sexual Harassment Guidance). This standard would be applied to the work place in the case of an employee.

Sexual misconduct investigations will be resolved promptly. A typical sexual misconduct case takes approximately 60 days following receipt of the complaint; 1 day to initiate the process, 1-28 days to thoroughly investigate the incident, 2-9 days to conduct a disciplinary hearing (if necessary), 1-6 days to reach a fair and equitable decision, 1-2 days to concurrently provide written notification to the complainant and the alleged perpetrator of the final outcome of the complaint, and 2-14 days to allow time for an appeal (if applicable). These time frames are estimated; the actual amount of time needed for each stage of the process will be determined by the facts of a particular case. These time frames may be increased, if needed, by the Title IX Coordinator or the university official in charge of a particular case.

Hearing Procedures. The University is committed to providing a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution for all students, employees, faculty, and staff involved. A time shall be set for a Title IX hearing not less than 48 hours after the written notice has been made to both the accused and the accuser. In cases that involve a complaint from a student about a student, the officials will typically be the faculty members of the disciplinary committee. In cases that involve a complaint involving any faculty or staff employee of the University, the Title IX Coordinator will appoint an adjudication board consisting of three members including at least one cabinet level member and/or senior campus administrator. The hearing may be conducted in the absence of the accused or accuser when proper notice has been given. A Title IX hearing shall be conducted by the Student Life Discipline Committee (in the case of an accused student) or by a specially appointed Human Resources Discipline Committee (in the case of an accused employee), according to the following guidelines:

a) A Title IX hearing is conducted in private and is closed to the public. Admission of any person to a Title IX hearing shall be at the discretion of the Discipline Committee.

b) Both the accused and the accuser have the same opportunity to have another person or other persons present during a Title IX hearing, but only in a support or advisory role to accompany and assist the accused or accuser in the hearing process.

c) Eye-witness testimony, written statements, relevant documents, applicable exhibits, pertinent records, and impact statements may also be presented at the hearing by either the accused or accuser. Both the accused and the accuser are entitled to present witnesses at the hearing. Any witness is subject to follow-up questioning by any committee member. The acceptance of any testimony and/or any tangible evidence will be at the discretion of the committee.

d) The committee’s determination shall be made using a preponderance of the evidence standard on the basis of whether it is more likely than not that the accused violated Title IX or the Campus Community Standards of Conduct. None of the following rules of evidence apply during a Title IX hearing: the federal rules of evidence, the Tennessee rules of evidence, the Florida rules of evidence, common-law principles of evidence, or any other formal law or rule of evidence.

e) A record of all hearings held before the Student Life Discipline Committee shall be made and preserved by the office of the Dean of Students (Tennessee campus) or the Executive Director of Student Life (Florida campus). A record of all hearings held before the Human Resources Discipline Committee shall be made and preserved by the office of the Human Resources Director. The record may take the form of summary notes, a rough transcript, or an audio recording. The choice of the form of record will be left to the discretion of the committee at each hearing.

f) The record of the hearing shall be the exclusive property of the University. The record of a Title IX hearing is not distributed to the accused, accuser, or any other party. The record of a Title IX hearing shall be kept for a period of at least seven (7) years.

Appeal Procedures. Recognizing that employees and students may be reluctant and/or embarrassed to voice a complaint about sexual misconduct decisions, the university’s formal grievance process is available to permit a dissatisfied victim, eye-witness, or offender to make an appeal of a Title IX decision. A dissatisfied victim, eye-witness, or offender should follow the grievance procedures that can be found at the end of Unit Six of the Student Handbook. In short, a Title IX appeal would begin with submission of an online grievance form, which may be accessed by using the following link on the university website:

http://johnsonu.edu/Tennessee/Student-Life/Student-Grievance.aspx

After the online grievance complaint form is submitted, the Title IX appeal will be investigated by the appropriate administrator and handled by the grievance committee. Since the Title IX Coordinator and lead investigator were closely involved in the resolution of the initial sexual misconduct complaint, they will be recused from service on the grievance committee assigned to a Title IX appeal.

Awareness and Prevention Program. The university offers an educational program for students and employees that promotes awareness and creates a campus community culture designed for the prevention of rape; acquaintance or date rape; dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking; other sex offenses, forcible or non-forcible, heterosexual or homosexual; and other Title IX offenses. Ultimately, the foundation for such a program comes from the university’s mission, Christian perspective, and core values.

The university’s Title IX awareness and prevention program begins with a new-student orientation session during Genesis Weekend, which is held on both campuses. The same awareness and prevention information is also provided during the orientation process for new distance-education students and new employees.

The university’s Title IX awareness and prevention program continues with ongoing educational activities on both campuses that are offered to both students and employees. These ongoing educational activities include a “Safety Awareness and Violence Prevention” newsletter published during the fall and spring terms, educational materials available on the university’s website, and special events/activities during Sexual Assault Awareness Month in April.

Victim Services and Resources. Local and referral help is available for victims of sexual misconduct from the university’s Health Services department and counseling center (available only on the TN campus), as well as the Student Services department. Local community and state victim services organizations are listed below for both Tennessee and Florida campuses. Many of these resources have web sites and toll-free telephone numbers that would be helpful for online students.

Florida Council Against Sexual Violence – Sexual Violence Hotline
www.fcasv.org/
24-hour Hotline: 1-888-956-7273
The Florida Sexual Violence Hotline provides crisis counseling and refers callers to the nearest sexual violence services center. For child, adolescent, and adult victims.

The university will make appropriate changes to the academic, living, transportation, and working situations of any sexual misconduct victim, if requested and reasonably available. For example, a victim of sexual assault may be moved to a different residence hall (if a student) or work location (if an employee), if available.

Immediate Assistance:
• Contact information for trained on- and off-campus victim advocates or counselors who can provide an immediate confidential response in a crisis situation
• Emergency numbers for on- and off-campus safety, law enforcement, Title IX Coordinator, and other first responders
• Health care options, both on- and off-campus

Ongoing Assistance:
• Counseling, advocacy, and support resources, both on- and off-campus
• Academic accommodations and interim protection measures

Possible Disciplinary Sanctions. Following a disciplinary hearing, a student or employee determined to have committed sexual misconduct will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from school for a student or termination of employment for an employee. Possible disciplinary sanctions for a student include the following:
• Issuance of disciplinary points, verbal or written warning, and/or monetary fine
• Mandatory meeting with Dean of Students or his/her designee
• Mandatory counseling or other professional intervention
• Disciplinary hearing
• Discretionary sanctions (i.e., revocation of any student privilege, community service, disqualification from awards or representing the university, loss of institutional financial aid, etc.)
• Housing suspension or expulsion
• Disciplinary probation for a specified period of time
• Institutional suspension, administrative withdrawal, or expulsion

Possible disciplinary sanctions for an employee include the following:
• Issuance of verbal or written warning, recorded in the personnel file
• Mandatory meeting with the appropriate university administrator or his/her designee
• Mandatory counseling or other professional intervention
• Disciplinary hearing
• Discretionary sanctions (i.e., revocation of any employee privilege, campus housing suspension or expulsion, community service, disqualification from awards or representing the university, etc.)
• Employment probation for a specified period of time
• Suspension from or termination of employment

Special Training for Responsible Employees. Annual training is provided to Responsible Employees on issues related to sex discrimination, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Adjudication hearings are conducted by university officials who also receive annual training on how to conduct an investigation and hearing that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability.

The primary sources of special training for Responsible Employees are the Lead Title IX Coordinator for the Tennessee and Online campuses and the Branch Title IX Coordinator for the Florida campus. The secondary sources of special training for Responsible Employees are the Vice President for Student Services for the Tennessee and Online campuses and the Executive Director of Student Life for the Florida campus. These designated university officials should have the most current knowledge of federal and state laws, regulations, and policies relating to Title IX. Since these university officials are the most informed members of the university community with regard to the university’s Title IX responsibilities, they are best prepared to train others in the appropriate responses to a Title IX complaint or potential sex discrimination situation that needs special attention and/or corrective action.

Safety Awareness. Through the years, Johnson University students and employees have not been immune from physical or sexual assault on or near the university’s campuses in Tennessee and Florida. After dark, people who are driving alone to and from campus should stay on the most public roads, avoiding the less traveled back roads to the campus. According to law enforcement officials, if a car with flashing blue lights tries to pull you over, turn on your emergency blinker lights and continue driving until you come to a brightly lit public parking lot where other people are present. Legitimate law enforcement officers won't mind the extra driving.

Additional Considerations.
1) Claims of sexual misconduct may involve one-on-one situations with no additional witnesses to refute or substantiate the complaints, making final resolution difficult.
2) Regardless of the truth or falsity of the allegations, sexual misconduct charges that cannot be proved may have an adverse effect upon the career and family life of both the alleged perpetrator and the alleged victim.
3) If allegations of sexual misconduct prove to be untrue, the complainant may cause irreparable damage to the accused’s reputation, may have defamed the accused’s character, and may be sued in a court of law.

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Policy

Introduction. At most of America's colleges and universities, drinking is taken for granted as a part of university life. Unfortunately, alcohol and drug abuse are also a part of campus life at most of America's institutions of higher learning.

Standard of Conduct. In keeping with the mission of Johnson University, the use, possession, distribution, manufacture, or sale of narcotics, illegal drugs, alcoholic beverages, marijuana, tobacco, or the abuse of legal substances by its students and employees is strictly prohibited. NOTE: if a beverage contains more than zero percent alcohol, it is considered to be an alcoholic beverage.

Drug Testing. Whenever it is reasonable to suspect a student of substance abuse, JUTN officials will make drug testing available. If the results come back negative, JUTN will bear the cost of the drug test. If the results are positive, the student will bear the cost and will be subject to disciplinary action. If the student refuses a request to be tested for substance abuse, then he/she will be subject to disciplinary action.

Sanctions for Violation of the Standard. Violation of this policy will lead to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from university or termination of employment (and referral for prosecution when Local Codes, State of Tennessee Codes, or Federal Codes have been broken).

Why an Abstinence Policy? The pleasures of drinking alcoholic beverages, smoking or chewing tobacco, and sniffing, smoking or injecting illegal drugs are outweighed by their destructiveness. Yes, tobacco is lawful for all university-age students, marijuana is legal in some states, and alcoholic beverages are lawful for some (21 is the legal drinking age in Tennessee). However, the apostle Paul wrote, "All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any" (I Corinthians 6:12, NKJV). Sobriety and self-control are the Biblical norm, not drunkenness and addiction. Johnson University teaches that abstinence is the best way to achieve the Biblical norm.

Help is Available. Confidential referrals for counseling, treatment, or rehabilitation are available from the counseling center and the health services office to students and employees who voluntarily seek such assistance. Helpful literature on alcohol and drug abuse can also be found in the counseling center and in the health services office.

Tennessee Codes. Under Tennessee state law, it is unlawful for any person under the age of twenty-one to buy, possess, transport or consume alcoholic beverages (TCA 1-3-113); to provide alcoholic beverages to minors (TCA 39-15-404); to be intoxicated in public (TCA 39-17-310); to possess or exchange a controlled substance (TCA 39-17-417). Copies of the applicable Tennessee Codes are available from the student life office.

Federal Codes. Possession and trafficking in controlled substances is regulated by federal law. The Federal Codes provide for fines plus imprisonment for possession (21USC844); forfeiture of real and personal property used to possess or facilitate possession (21USC853, 21USC881); forfeiture of vehicles, boats, aircraft, etc, used to transport a controlled substance (21USC884); civil fines and denial of federal benefits (21USC854); ineligibility to purchase or receive a firearm (18USC922).

Federal Financial Aid Consequences:

Section 484(r)

(r) SUSPENSION OF ELIGIBILITY FOR DRUG-RELATED OFFENSES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—A student who has been convicted of any offense under any Federal or State law involving the possession or sale of a controlled substance shall not be eligible to receive any grant, loan, or work assistance under this title during the period beginning on the date of such conviction and ending after the interval specified in the following table:

If convicted of an offense involving:

(2) REHABILITATION.—A student whose eligibility has been suspended under paragraph (1) may resume eligibility before the end of the ineligibility period determined under such paragraph if—
(A) the student satisfactorily completes a drug rehabilitation program that—
(i) complies with such criteria as the Secretary shall prescribe in regulations for purposes of this paragraph; and
(ii) includes two unannounced drug tests;
(B) the student successfully passes two unannounced drug tests conducted by a drug rehabilitation program that complies with such criteria as the Secretary shall prescribe in regulations for purposes of subparagraph (A)(i); or
(C) the conviction is reversed, set aside, or otherwise rendered nugatory.

(3) DEFINITIONS.—In this subsection, the term ‘‘controlled substance’’ has the meaning given the term in section 102(6) of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802(6)).
Fire Safety

Residence Hall Policies. The following are prohibited in and around Johnson residence halls: burning of candles or incense, halogen lamps, appliances for cooking (other than microwaves and coffee makers in Brown and Johnson Halls), barbecue grills (including propane bottles, charcoal briquettes, lighter fluid, and unused grills), gasoline or any kind of fuel, and motorized vehicles. Because of the fire hazard involved, no real trees or live greenery are permitted in the residence halls during the Christmas season. Other fire hazards as identified by student life and/or campus safety personnel may also be prohibited, including “daisy-chained” extension cords or excessive use of flammable decorations.

Procedures for Evacuating Residence Halls. Residence hall evacuations procedures are initiated when a building is no longer safe for occupation. The fire alarm system is an important and effective notification system. When the fire alarm sounds in a residence hall, all occupants of the building are to proceed to the nearest exit and remain in a safe location at least 50 feet from the building and out of roads and driveways until an “all-clear” signal is given by campus safety personnel and/or residence staff. Upon evacuation, occupants are to cluster in predetermined assembly areas. If necessary, occupants will be moved to safe shelter in the Phillips-Welshimer building. Resident Assistants will check to see that occupants are evacuated and assess how many students are present. Having determined that, Resident Assistants should walk the perimeter of the building and notify campus safety personnel of any students remaining in the building.

Fire drills are conducted annually in order to familiarize occupants with evacuation procedures.

Policies for Other Student Residences.

Bell Hall. The following are prohibited in and within 10 feet of Bell Hall: burning of candles or incense, halogen lamps, barbecue grills (including propane bottles, charcoal briquettes, lighter fluid, and unused grills), gasoline or any kind of fuel, and motorized vehicles. Because of the fire hazard involved, no real trees or live greenery are permitted in the residence halls during the Christmas season. Other fire hazards as identified by student life and/or campus safety personnel may also be prohibited, including “daisy-chained” extension cords or excessive use of flammable decorations.

Garrett Way and Gateway Townhouses. The following are prohibited in and within 10 feet of Garrett Way and Gateway townhouses: barbecue grills (including propane bottles, charcoal briquettes, lighter fluid, and unused grills), gasoline or any kind of fuel, and motorized vehicles. Other fire hazards as identified by student life and/or campus safety personnel may also be prohibited, including “daisy-chained” extension cords or excessive use of flammable decorations.

Mobile Homes and Duplexes. The following are prohibited in mobile homes and duplexes: gasoline or any kind of fuel, and motorized vehicles. Other fire hazards as identified by student life and/or campus safety personnel may also be prohibited, including “daisy-chained” extension cords or excessive use of flammable decorations.

All Other Student Grievances

Johnson University Grievance Policy. Students have the right to file a formal complaint about unsatisfactory situations if all other forms of redress failed to correct the situation. If currently enrolled students have complaints about policies, procedures, decisions, or conditions at Johnson University, they may submit a Student Grievance Form by contacting the Vice Provost for Research & Planning or using the following link on the university website:

http://johnsonu.edu/Tennessee/Student-Life/Student-Grievance.aspx

Johnson encourages students to communicate freely with the administration, faculty, and staff before filing a formal complaint. Problems can often be corrected to the satisfaction of all parties through informal communication. The administration encourages students to avoid frivolous complaints, so that staff will have more time to devote to serious matters. The Student Government Association (SGA) also exists to promote good relations between students, faculty, and staff. Many student grievances can be resolved effectively through the SGA, which interprets student opinion to the faculty and vice-versa.

The Office of Institutional Effectiveness reads all formal complaints and forwards them to the appropriate department for follow-up. The vice president of the administrative unit most closely connected to the complaint receives email notification within one week of the complaint. Files and follow-up documents are also reviewed at least once each term by a Grievance Committee composed of a representative from the Office of Student Services or an alternate administrator, two members of the faculty, and one representative from the Student Government Association (SGA). The Office of Institutional Effectiveness keeps all records on file.

SACSCOC Complaint Procedures. Allegations regarding noncompliance with accreditation standards, policies, and procedures may be made to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC), 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033-4097. For the Commission's complaint policy, procedure and complaint form, see the SACSCOC website (www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/complaintpolicy.pdf).

ABHE Complaint Procedures. Complaints from individuals, institutions or programs, or agencies regarding an institution’s or a program’s significant noncompliance with ABHE Standards, policies, or procedures shall be submitted in writing to the Director, Commission on Accreditation, at 5850 T.G. Lee Blvd., Suite 130, Orlando, FL 32822. The complaints will be handled by the Director, Commission on Accreditation, in accordance with the “Policy on Complaints Against an Institution or Accredited Program.” Source: ABHE Commission on Accreditation Manual, Revised August 2014, p. 100, http://www.abhecoa.org/forms.abhe.org/webdocs/COA%20Manual.pdf.

State of Tennessee Complaint Procedures. Should the institution not be able to resolve the student complaint, the student has the right to contact the state of Tennessee and its appropriate agencies to determine the course of action.

- Complaints related to the application of state laws or rules related to approval to operate or licensure of a particular professional program within a postsecondary institution shall be referred to the appropriate State Board (e.g. State Board of Health, State Board of Education) and shall be reviewed and handled by that board. See the Tennessee State Government website (www.tn.gov) and search for the appropriate division.

- Complaints related to state consumer protection laws (e.g., laws related to fraud or false advertising) shall be referred to the Tennessee Division of Consumer Affairs and shall be reviewed and handled by that unit (www.tn.gov/consumer).
Out-of-State Complaint Procedures. Students are urged to exhaust all possible internal avenues for resolution before filing complaints with external agencies. In the unlikely event that an issue cannot be resolved by the University, out-of-state students may file a complaint with their respective state licensing authority. See the Johnson University website for a list of student complaint processes by state.
APPENDIX A:
NON-TRADITIONAL STUDENT HOUSING POLICIES

These policies pertain to University owned mobile homes, apartments, townhouses, duplexes, and homes which are located on the JUTN property and occupied by non-traditional students.

Part 1. Regulations

Assignment of units to incoming students is determined by six considerations: (1) date of payment of the housing deposit; (2) date of Housing Application; (3) size of family; (4) arrival date; (5) specific unit requested; and (6) discretion of University administration.

Students who are engaged but not yet married may not take possession of a housing unit until one week prior to the wedding, unless other arrangements are made with the Associate Dean of Students for Residence Life.

Before Moving In. A student may not move into a housing unit until he or she has: (1) been accepted by the Admissions office, (2) paid the appropriate housing deposit, (3) signed the Non-Traditional Student Housing Agreement and returned it to the Student Life office, and (4) completed and returned the housing checklist to the Plant Services office.

University Owned Housing Units. JUTN housing units are rented as single family dwellings. Units cannot be sub-rented at any time. Written consent must be obtained from the Student Life office before anyone other than parents and their dependent children may occupy a unit. Normal visits by others are permitted. Visitors bringing recreational vehicles must arrange with the Guest Services office to park in spaces built for that purpose.

Since University owned housing units are intended to serve as temporary homes for many couples and families, the following guidelines are intended to: (1) control the permanent physical changes to the units to satisfy the personal tastes of many instead of a few; (2) make sure that approved changes meet state and local building and fire codes; and (3) encourage Christian stewardship.

University personnel may enter any residence at any time for inspection, maintenance, or investigation of a suspected violation of the community living standards described in Unit IV of this handbook. The customary procedure of knocking before entering shall be followed at all times.

Pets. Pets are strictly prohibited. Pets are not allowed in any student housing unit. Exceptions for small caged pets such as birds, fish or gerbils will be considered by the Dean of Students office on a case by case basis.

Residents found in violation of the pet policy will be given written notice that the pet must be removed immediately. JUTN reserves the right to inspect units where there is reason to suspect that pets are being kept. Violators must notify the Dean of Students office in writing after the pet has been removed.

Residents found in violation of the pet policy will immediately be assessed a punitive $500 fine plus actual damages, and may be subject to forfeiture of their housing deposit and eviction from their housing unit. The fine plus actual damages will be added to the student's account. Once it has been added, the fine must be paid to clear the account.

Resident Assistants. Resident Assistants (RA’s) are employed by JUTN to serve as counselors and helpers to students who live in the residence halls, mobile home courts, apartments and homes on campus. If you have questions about school life, activities, services, or campus regulations, contact the RA.

Vacation Precautions. In order to prevent damage to the housing unit, the following guidelines should be followed if you temporarily vacate the housing unit during the winter months. Set the thermostat on the lowest setting (64 degrees), but do not turn off the furnace. (Note: any repairs for damages, such as broken water pipes and water damaged floors or carpeting, occurring to University owned units and caused by your negligence must be paid by you.) As an added precaution, ask someone remaining on campus to check your housing unit while you are away to help prevent serious problems from happening.

Contact the RA when you are leaving and will be gone for several days.

Please remember that neither single students nor other guests are permitted to stay in married housing when the regular occupants are away without the prior consent of the Student Life office.

During severe freezing weather (usually below 25 degrees Fahrenheit), mobile home residents may need to let the water run slowly day and night to prevent water pipes from freezing and breaking. However, please be as conservative as possible by not running more water than is necessary.

Good Housekeeping. Neat and tidy homes are an asset to any community. This is particularly true in a Christian learning community where students are preparing for Great Commission vocations. Please keep your living area clean inside and out.

Fire Prevention. Fire extinguishers and smoke alarms are furnished by JUTN. Batteries should not be removed from the smoke alarms. Replacement batteries for the smoke alarms are available in the Plant Services office.

Because of insurance and fire code regulations, fire escapes and hallways must always be kept clear. Kerosene heaters are not permitted. Users of electric space heaters must observe all manufacturer guidelines.

The use and storage of charcoal or gas grills is strictly regulated. Please refer to your housing agreement.

Insurance. JUTN carries structural fire and liability insurance on University owned housing units. To protect personal belongings, renters would need to take out their own renter’s insurance from the agency of their choice. Please refer to your housing agreement.

Part 2. Families

Standards of Conduct. JUTN residents are expected to be sensitive to the many principles of Christian living found in the Bible. JUTN imposes certain specific guidelines for the conduct of students, staff, faculty, administration, and their families. Although such man-made regulations cannot improve a Christian’s relationship to Christ, they can strengthen the life and testimony of both the individual and the campus. JUTN does not presume to be a censoring agency for all activities. JUTN does, however, expect tangible evidence of maturing Christian convictions and discerning judgment. Students are held accountable for the conduct of their families.

Courtesy. Because most Non-Traditional Student living quarters are often located only a few feet apart, residents must be careful not to intrude upon the study or quiet time of neighbors. In consideration of others, radios, television sets, stereos, etc. should be played during reasonable hours and at low volume. If possible, practice musical instruments before 9:00 p.m.

During class months, encourage children to play quietly in order that students studying are not distracted.

Dress Code. The campus dress codes for men and women are defined in the Student Handbook and apply to both single and Non-Traditional Students, spouses who live on campus but are not enrolled as students, and children who have reached the age of twelve or who have entered the seventh grade. RA’s, both married and single, enforce the dress code for all students.
Playground Rules. Children of all ages share the playgrounds. The following guidelines have been created for the safety of the children: no bicycle, tricycle, or big wheel riding is permitted in the immediate vicinity of the swings and other playground equipment; unsupervised children under five are not permitted in areas where swings are located; no fighting, sand throwing, name calling, or bad language. These are acts of misconduct that could lead to a revocation of playground privileges. Children should not be outside after dark.

Children knowingly or innocently breaking the above playground rules can and should be corrected by any adult. Children should be taught to respectfully submit to an adult’s authority to send them home if the misconduct is repeated during the same day.

Weapons. Possession or use of weapons on the Johnson campus is prohibited by JUTN and by Tennessee law. BB guns, air soft guns, and tasers are included in the prohibition. Children of campus residents need to be made aware of this prohibition. Security and university personnel are authorized to confiscate any of these prohibited items. See page 16.

Rules of the Road. Parents, please tell your children to respect the movement of traffic. Children on bicycles should be taught to obey the rules of the road while riding on campus. Security personnel and RA’s will enforce the rules of the road.

Part 3. Single Students in Non-traditional Housing

Single students who live in non-traditional housing areas may include graduate students or students who are 23 years of age or older.

Standards of Conduct. Maintain personal relationships that are above reproach. Bell Hall residents should keep the hallway door open when entertaining a guest of the opposite sex. Residents of all units which have bedrooms should never have guests of the opposite sex in the bedrooms. Students who share a duplex, townhome, or mobile home with other students should only entertain guests of the opposite sex when one or more housemates are also in the unit.

 Courtesy. Remember that you live in a family-oriented community. Obey the speed limits and watch out for children playing while driving through family living areas. Be considerate of your neighbors regarding quiet hours.

Resident Assistants. The RA’s for the living area are available to assist single students as well as families.

Part 4. Miscellaneous

Moving Out. Please refer to your housing agreement for policies and procedures.

Campus Facilities. The guidelines for using campus facilities are found in Unit 4 of the Student Handbook. Parents, please advise your children concerning access times, age restrictions, proper identification, codes of behavior, and sanctions for disregarding the guidelines.

Repair Requests. Work order requests may be made using the online by accessing the form from the JUTN Plant Services Workorder web page. Please ask your RA for assistance.

Part 5. Summer Guidelines

Swimming. Swimming pool guidelines and pool schedule are located on the Plant Services intranet Web River and Ponds. The river and ponds are off-limits. Swimming and rafting are not permitted. The floodgates at Douglas Dam are opened daily without notice. The French Broad River rises rapidly (three to four feet in about thirty minutes). Persons caught in the current of the rising river are in a life-threatening situation.

Children. Construction sites are off-limits. Children should not enter University buildings except for guidelines listed in Unit 4 of the Student Handbook. Bicycles should be parked so as not to block building exits or walkways. Bicycles, skateboards, and roller skates should not be ridden on the sidewalks or on the tennis court.

Summer Storage. If you want to store belongings in the unit while you are away for the summer, you can do so by paying a summer storage charge equivalent to one month’s rent. By paying this charge, you are also guaranteed the same housing unit for the next semester. The charge must be paid before leaving campus for the summer.
APPENDIX B:
SENIOR TRANSITIONAL HOUSING

Housing Policy
Johnson University is committed to a residence life philosophy and policy that aims to promote the development of responsible and disciplined lifestyles. The environment of the campus integrates Christian faith, Christian learning, and Christian living.

Applicants for senior transitional housing must meet minimum qualifications which include:
1. Applicant must have completed a minimum of 90 credit hours
2. Applicant must be in good standing (not on academic, disciplinary, or service learning probation)

APPENDIX C:
SINGLE STUDENT HOUSING POLICIES

Part 1. General Housing Policy

Housing Policy. Full-time undergraduate single students are required to live in campus residence hall housing. Students may submit a written appeal to the Associate Dean of Students for Residence Life for an exception to this policy. Exceptions will be considered for the following reasons:

- Students who have parents, legal guardians, or siblings who live in a residence within commuting distance may request permission to live with and commute from that residence;
- Students who are employed and who’s employer requires employees to live in “convenience of employer” housing;
- Single students 23 years old or older may petition the Associate Dean of Students for Residence Life for permission to live in non-traditional student housing if available, or off-campus.
- Single students who have reached the age of 30 by the date of matriculation are not eligible for residence hall housing.

Part-time undergraduate single students and students who are enrolled in degree completion programs may not live in campus housing.

Residence Hall Closings. Residence Halls are closed and secured during all school breaks (Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Week of Evangelism). However, students who need housing during the breaks may arrange with the Student Life office for access.

Residence hall rooms are available for occupancy by each student from opening time each semester until 24 hours after the student’s final exam, but not beyond the stated closing time and not during school breaks. Single students are not permitted to stay in married housing when the regular occupants are away without prior permission from the Student Life office.

Part 2. Spiritual Development

Resident Assistants. Resident assistants are assigned to each wing of each residence hall floor. The resident assistants are responsible to the Dean of Students and the resident directors. They are carefully selected and employed by JUTN to (1) help establish the environment within the residence hall; (2) assist, advise, and counsel residents; (3) enforce rules and regulations anywhere students are present; (4) assist with administrative responsibilities.

Devotions. Devotions are an important part of residence hall life, with varied types of meetings and groups enriching the spiritual lives of the participants, who also benefit from the close bond of fellowship with other Christians. Schedules are posted by the resident assistants.

Prayer Rooms. Prayer rooms are provided on the third floor of Brown and Johnson Halls. Prayer rooms are to be used for no other purpose.

Part 3. Facilities

Room Assignments. Room assignments are made by the resident directors on a first-come, first-served, seniority basis. Every student has a roommate unless he or she wishes to pay for a private room, if available. If two persons in a residence hall are without roommates, they will be moved together and one room will be closed. Room request changes should be directed in writing to the Resident Director and approved by the Associate Dean of Students for Residence Life.

Furniture. Furniture is not to be moved from the room. All fixtures are to remain in place. Leave mattresses on the beds at all times. Do not take mattresses to another room. Window coverings are furnished and must be used. Mattress pads are required.

Keys. Each occupant is issued a room key. For security purposes and to avoid putting temptation in the way of weaker Christians, please lock unoccupied rooms and carry the key with you. Report any unauthorized entry immediately to the resident assistant. Lost or stolen belongings should be reported to the security office.

Part 4. Student Responsibilities

Personal Needs. Students should bring such clothing as they will need for all kinds of weather. Each student will also need towels and wash cloths, bedding for an extra-long twin mattress (including a mattress pad), a waste basket, a laundry basket or bag, and toilet articles. Students are encouraged to purchase a lightweight rechargeable sweeper for cleaning their room.

Room Decor. Repairs, painting, and alterations of rooms must have the permission and supervision of the Resident director and the Physical Plant Director. Nails, screws, scotch tape, or duct tape may not be used on the walls or doors. 3M Command® strips may be used to hang pictures, but will cause significant damage to the wall if instructions are not followed upon removal. The student is responsible for damages caused when the strips are improperly removed. Plastic tack products (white only) may be used to hang posters, but student should be aware that improper removal may damage the wall. Plastic tack products may also leave an oily residue on the wall. Ceiling tiles may not be removed under any circumstances, and items may not be stored in the ceiling space. The student is responsible for damages. Exercise the same respect for University furniture and fixtures that you would at home.

Report any problem regarding lights, plumbing, doors, and fixtures to the resident director or a resident assistant.

Insurance. University insurance does not cover personal belongings of students. JUTN recommends that you buy personal property (renter’s) insurance to cover expensive items such as electronics.

Courtesy. Each student’s room is his or her private domain. Do not enter another’s room without permission or knowledge and permission. In consideration of others, radios, televisions and stereos should be played at low volume even when quiet hours are not in effect.

Running in the halls, boisterous talk, and shouting are a serious breach of courtesy. Wrestling and boxing are not permitted.

Quiet hours. Quiet hours are in effect after 10 p.m and continue until 9 a.m. the following morning. Radios, television sets, stereos, and computer games should be turned off, or played at such low volume that no one outside the room knows they are on. The residence hall staff reserves the right to remove the stereo, radio, or TV if an offender does not respond to the request to keep the volume low. This removal can be for the remainder of a semester, and permission may be denied for offenders to keep a stereo, radio, or TV in their room during their stay in the residence hall.

Television And Video. Resident directors and resident assistants will monitor TV and DVD/VCR viewing habits in the residence halls. If sleep, study, roommate, and moral considerations are ignored, then TVs or DVD/VCRs may be confiscated, or viewing times may be regulated.

Curfew. Curfew is observed at 11:00 p.m. on Tuesday in order to facilitate community group meetings. Curfew is observed at 1:00 a.m. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, and 11:30 p.m. on other weekdays. All outside doors will be locked at curfew. Residence hall occupants may not open doors after lock-up. Commuters should be off campus at curfew unless registered as guests. Violation of curfew without good reason is a disciplinary offense.

Late Permission. Late permission may be requested. Secure late permission in advance from the resident director or designated resident assistant. If something unforeseen should delay you, call the resident director when you know you will be arriving late. Sign in on return.

Signing Out and Signing In. Emergency and security procedures require the resident director to know who is in the building at all times. In addition, the resident director must be assured that students away from the building are in a properly chaperoned environment. Ordinarily, a student is not permitted to leave the building for overnight visits during the week (Monday through Friday).

All students who leave the residence hall for overnight must clear their absence with the resident director and sign out using the sheet provided in the main lobby of the residence hall. Students are expected to return from weekend trips before curfew. If meeting the curfew causes a bona-fide hardship, then late permission should be obtained in advance.

A late entry sign-in sheet is kept in the main lobby of the residence halls. A total of thirty minutes emergency late leave is permitted without penalty each semester.

Single students coming on campus after curfew will be reported to the respective resident directors by means of a Late Entry Report prepared by security personnel. These reports will be compared with the late entry sign-in sheet. Sign-out sheets are periodically reviewed.

Residence hall occupants are expected to abide by the honor system in signing out. Violation of your word of honor without good reason is a disciplinary offense.

Room Inspection. Rooms are to be kept neat, clean, orderly, and ready for weekly inspection by residence hall staff. Sheets and mattress pads must be used on all beds. Shower and sink areas must be kept clean. Dirty clothes should be kept in a laundry bag or basket. Bottles and trash should be removed daily and deposited in the places provided. Any food kept in rooms should be in sealed containers. Failing regular room inspection is a disciplinary offense. Students will be charged a cleaning fee for failing weekly room inspection.

University personnel may enter any room at any time for inspection, maintenance, or investigation of a suspected violation of the community living standards described in Unit IV of this handbook. Customary procedure of knocking before entering shall be followed at all times.

Cleaning. Students are encouraged to purchase a lightweight rechargeable sweeper for cleaning their own rooms. Resident assistants will provide information regarding approved shower cleaners. Vacuums are not to be taken outside for any reason.

Residence hall occupants are expected to take an interest in the total appearance of the residence halls. The cleaning of the general areas of the buildings is done by work students, but all students should take responsibility to pick up anything they drop, clean up anything they spill, carry cans and paper to the appropriate recycling container, and dispose of trash properly.

Window Screens. The outside screens must be left on at all times. Windows are not to be used for entering and exiting rooms.

Electrical Appliances. Cooking and ironing are permissible only in rooms provided for their use.
Cooking equipment found in other rooms will be confiscated. Microwaves and coffee makers are allowed in Brown and Johnson Hall rooms.

Residence Hall Kitchens. If the kitchen in a residence hall is left in a messy and disorderly condition, the residence hall staff reserves the right to close the kitchen. Food scraps attract roaches which necessitates frequent spraying. A closed kitchen will be reopened only by assurance from the residents that it will be used properly, kept clean and orderly.

Laundry Rooms. Laundry rooms are shared by all. Please remove clothes from washers and dryers as soon as they are finished. Take washing supplies from the laundry room when finished with them. The laundry room is cleaned daily and items left over 24 hours will be removed.

Telephones. Making of harassing or obscene telephone calls will be treated as a disciplinary matter.

Fire. The following are prohibited in and around Johnson residence halls: burning of candles or incense, halogen lamps, appliances for cooking (other than microwaves and coffee makers in Brown and Johnson Halls), barbecue grills (including propane bottles, charcoal briquettes, lighter fluid, and unused grills), gasoline or any kind of fuel, and motorized vehicles. Because of the fire hazard involved, no real trees or live greenery are permitted in the residence halls during the Christmas season. Other fire hazards as identified by student life and/or campus safety personnel may also be prohibited, including “daisy-chained” extension cords or excessive use of flammable decorations.

Fire Escape Exits. Propping open exterior doors is a disciplinary offense.

Stewardship Of Energy. Radios, televisions, stereos and lights are to be turned off and windows closed before leaving the room. Windows are to remain closed when either heating or air conditioning is on.

Animals. No pets are allowed. Violation of the pet policy will result in a fine of $50 per day. Violations may result in additional cleaning charges to remove allergens.

Aquatic animals living in an underwater environment are the only animals permitted in the residence halls at any time. Residents are permitted a maximum 5 gallons capacity per room in no more than two aquariums. Animals must be unable to survive outside of the underwater environment.

An additional damage deposit of $100 is required in order to keep an aquarium.

Part 5. Miscellaneous

Visiting Hours and Restrictions. All areas of the residence hall are off limits at all times to members of the opposite sex, except the main lobby. The main lobby of each residence hall is to be considered an extension of the resident director’s living room and should be respected as part of the resident director’s home. Students are expected to clean up any mess they make. Students are not to sleep on lobby furniture. Visiting hours will be enforced as posted.

Men and women will not converse with one another through the residence hall windows.

Guests. All persons remaining overnight in the residence halls are to be registered with the hall RA’s. RA’s will report all guests to the Resident Manager. Emergency and security procedures require the resident director to know who is staying in the building. People not currently assigned to a room in a Johnson residence hall (including commuters, former students, and friends) are considered to be guests. No guest will stay in the residence halls more than a cumulative total of one week per semester.

Students may request housing for their guests in advance by contacting the guest housing coordinator in the admissions office. Guests will be charged rates as determined by JUTN’s administration. Guests are requested to furnish their own linens and towels.
JUTN does not provide facilities for housing and feeding transients and other homeless people. Students wishing to help people in these circumstances should direct them to the Knox Area Rescue Ministry or other local ministries founded for this purpose.

Children. Children are to stay out of the resident halls without parental supervision. Students may not keep children as overnight guests in their rooms. Babysitting is not permitted in the residence halls.

Storage. Limited storage is provided in the residence halls for luggage and personal belongings not in use. All boxes and luggage should be labeled with name and home address. Students assume the risk for loss, theft, or damage of stored items. Storage rooms are for the use of currently enrolled students only. Abandoned items will be disposed of after 90 days.

Moving Out. Fall term residents who are not returning for the spring semester and all spring term residents at the end of the spring semester must check out of the residence hall within 24 hours after their last final exam for the term, or by 9 a.m. on the Friday of the final exam week, whichever is earlier. Seniors who have graduated will check out no later than Monday following commencement.

All students must schedule an exit inspection with the resident assistant. Failure to do so will result in a fine.

Summer Storage. Students may not store personal items in the residence halls during the summer months. Items left in halls, lobbies, rooms, storage closets, bicycle racks, or otherwise not claimed, will be disposed of.
APPENDIX D:
STUDENT VEHICLE REGULATIONS

Part 1. Registration and Operation

Section 1. General Policies

These regulations cover any vehicle operated on campus streets, including bicycles and motor vehicles. Students operate their vehicles at their own risk.

Driving Privileges. Motor vehicles are for transportation to and from campus, not on campus. No driving is permitted on campus except: (1) for loading and unloading vehicles; (2) for picking up or dropping off passengers; (3) by Non-Traditional Students using the upper campus laundry facility; and (4) by special permission obtained from the business office. Residence hall occupants may not drive to class, chapel, old gym, or pool. Violators will be ticketed. Students operate their vehicles at their own risk.

Pedestrians. The JUTN campus is a pedestrian-friendly environment. Pedestrians have the right-of-way at all crosswalks. Pedestrians sometimes use the street as a walkway, particularly in areas where sidewalks are not present. Where sidewalks are available, pedestrians should use them. Drivers of all vehicles, including bicycles, are to exercise caution when driving on campus and be alert to the presence of pedestrians. SPEED LIMITS ARE STRICTLY ENFORCED IN ORDER TO PROTECT THE SAFETY OF PEDESTRIANS.

Motor Vehicle Registration. Motor vehicles must be properly licensed, carry liability insurance, and be registered with the Student Life office using the online vehicle registration form. A registration fee is assessed for each motor vehicle. Residence hall occupants may have only one motor vehicle on campus.

Decals. Registration decals adhere to the interior side of the windshield by static and must be mounted in the lowest possible position at the extreme left side of the front windshield. Registration fees for vehicles brought to campus mid-semester may be pro-rated.

Section 2. Parking

Residence Halls. Parking areas are assigned by the business office. All student vehicles are to be parked in assigned parking areas while on campus. Failure to park in the assigned areas will result in a citation.

Non-traditional Student Housing. Apartment residents will have parking spaces assigned to their unit as described in the housing lease agreement. Students who live in the Courts will park in their driveways, not on the street. Court residents may drive their vehicles to campus in inclement weather, but may park only in areas designated for use by commuter students.

Commuters. Commuter students will park only in the designated parking areas.

“No Parking” Zones. Vehicles will be ticketed if found parked: (1) in front of the Alumni Memorial Chapel and the east end of Myrtle Hall; (2) in the roadway between Bell Hall and the Old Gymnasium; (3) in front of the residence halls, except resident directors and visitors; (4) other areas as posted.
Section 3. Speed Limits

Speed Limits and Reckless Driving. Speed limits are posted on high-visibility signs around the main campus, residence halls, and residential areas. Please observe the posted speed limits. IF YOU EXCEED THE SPEED LIMIT OR DRIVE RECKLESSLY, YOU WILL PAY A FINE.

Section 4. Other Regulations

One Way. Traffic flow from the front of Bell Hall around the Old Main Building and Clark Hall is one way toward the old gymnasium and Alumni Memorial Chapel. Observe the one-way signs as posted.

Accidents. Any vehicular accident which results in personal injury must be immediately reported to the Knox County Sheriff by calling 911. Any property damage accident that does not involve a university-owned vehicle or university property must be reported to the Knox County Sheriff. All accidents involving either a university-owned vehicle or university property must be immediately reported to the Plant Services office by calling 2222. In the case of an accident involving student-owned vehicles, students must be prepared to exchange insurance information. The Dean of Students may also release student auto insurance information to students involved in an accident on campus.

Curfew. Those in charge of campus security will inquire about the movement of vehicles that come on campus after curfew.

Repairing Vehicles. Do not change engine oil or repair cars in the parking lots or on the campus roadways. JUTN does not offer maintenance facilities for student use.

Part 2. Enforcement

Section 1. Security Patrol

JUTN is registered with the state of Tennessee as a proprietary security organization and contracts with a security service to provide licensed security personnel.

Duties. During the school year a security patrolman will be posted at the main entrance to the campus during hours designated by the Director of Plant Services in order to offer information and assistance to guests as well as safeguard the campus by screening entering vehicles. The gate at Bell Drive and Hodges Ferry Road and the gate at the residence hall drive and Hodges Ferry Road will be locked from 9 p.m. until 6 a.m. Guests will be verified and temporary parking permits will be issued. A log will be kept of incoming traffic between curfew and 6 a.m. The welcome booth and the security vehicle are equipped with radar units to make the campus a safer place for residents and guests.

Section 2. Motor Vehicle Violations

The following are examples of registration, parking, and moving violations.

Registration. (1) On University property with no visible or improperly displayed registration decal (see); (2) altered or mutilated registration decal; (3) falsification of registration information.

Parking. (1) In a no-parking zone; (2) in unauthorized area; (3) in loading zone; (4) in fire lane; (5) blocking or obstructing traffic, street, sidewalk, driveway, building entrance or exit, or another vehicle; (6) parked overtime; (7) in handicapped space; (8) parked outside lines or appropriately marked space; (9) parked in space assigned to someone else.
Moving. (1) Exceeding posted speed limit; (2) excessive speed for existing conditions; (3) failure to obey a traffic sign; (4) failure to obey a security patrolman; (5) operating vehicle without a valid operator’s license; (6) reckless driving and/or racing; (7) failure to yield right-of-way; (8) leaving scene of accident; (9) wrong way on one-way street; (10) operating mechanically unsafe vehicle; (11) driving under the influence; (12) operating a vehicle that is unnecessarily loud (loud mufflers, horns, stereos, etc.); (13) drive off of roadway or street.

Section 3. Citations

Violations of motor vehicle regulations will result in citations. It is not university practice to issue “warning” citations.

Fines. Fines will be charged to student accounts according to the following schedule. JUTN reserves the right to revoke driving privileges for excessive noise violations.

Traffic Board. A traffic hearing board reviews motor vehicle regulations, safety procedures, and considers appeals of traffic or parking citations. The board consists of the resident assistants for the non-traditional housing areas or such members as may be appointed by the Dean of Students. The Dean of Students presides over the traffic board.

Application for Appeal. A written appeal, using the form supplied by the Dean of Students, is the initial step in the appeals process. This must be done within fourteen calendar days from the issuance of the citation or the right of appeal will be forfeited. Appeals must be made by the person cited or the person to whom the vehicle is registered. The completed form should be submitted to the assistant Dean of Students.

Hearing. The Dean of Students may attempt to settle the dispute informally. The traffic board will meet as required. Failure to appear without prior notice at a scheduled office or traffic board meeting will result in forfeiture of right to appeal.

Disciplinary Action. After the second moving offense in an academic year or after the third parking offense, additional violations of motor vehicle regulations will result in disciplinary action by the Dean of Students or the discipline committee. Penalties at their disposal include discretionary fines, loss of driving and/or parking privileges on campus, disciplinary probation, and disciplinary suspension. See Unit Five of the Student Handbook for a thorough explanation of disciplinary procedures.
