Johnson University Tennessee Hosts Cross Country Races for the Knoxville Youth Athletics Program

Knoxville, Tennessee, Monday and Tuesday, September 29 and 30: On these days, Johnson University Tennessee will host two Cross Country races, sponsored by the Knoxville youth Athletics program.

The first race begins at 5:30 p.m. on Monday, September 29. The participants will be Elementary School students from various schools in the Knoxville region. This one-mile race will take place on the track circling the Johnson University Athletic Fields. The girls will race first, and then the boys will follow.

The second race will take place on Tuesday, September 30 at 5:30 p.m.. This is a two-mile Middle School race that will range all over the Johnson University campus. Johnson University representatives will be present to direct the runners along their path. Once again the women will race first, and then the men will follow.

For more information, or to view a list of participating schools, go to http://tn.milesplit.com/meets/179996-knoxville-youth-athletics-elementary-xc-program-meet-3#.VCB-YldptyI or http://tn.milesplit.com/meets/179997-knoxville-youth-athletics-middle-school-xc-program-meet-3#.VCB-51dptyI

Since 1893, Johnson University has been a leader in Christian higher education. Today the Johnson University System offers more than 70 accredited bachelor’s, master’s, Ph.D., and associate's programs across three campuses – in East Tennessee, Central Florida, and online. Each campus reflects the University’s mission to equip individuals for Christian ministries and other strategic vocations to extend the kingdom of God.

-END-