

2016 Middle-Eastern Tennessee High School Students Chinese Character Recognition Contest

田
纳
西
州
中
东
部
高
中
生
汉
字
认
读
比
赛

- ◆ Purpose: To foster the interest in Mandarin Chinese, encourage a sense of achievement in learning the language, and enhance ability in Chinese script writing among high school students.
- ◆ Who: High school students who have learned Chinese for one year or more (Students who participated in this contest in 2016 are not eligible to register).
- ◆ How: We invite high schools that offer Mandarin Chinese to select 4 students to participate as a team. The contest will take three rounds, include the basic simplified Chinese characters required in HSK Level 1 and 2. Please see the detailed information in “Schedule and Rules” .
- ◆ When: October 29, 2016, 2:00-4:00 PM
- ◆ Where: Richardson Hall, Room 164, Johnson University, Knoxville
7900 Johnson Drive, Knoxville, TN 37998
- ◆ Awards:
 - 1st place:* $150 in cash for the team, plus $500 Johnson University Scholarship Certificate for each individual participant.
 - 2nd place:* $100 in cash for the team, plus $250 Johnson University Scholarship Certificate for each individual participant.
 - 3rd place:* $50 in cash for the team.Each individual contestant will receive a participation gift from Johnson University.

Sponsored by:

Johnson
UNIVERSITY
TENNESSEE • FLORIDA • ONLINE

7900 Johnson Drive, Knoxville, TN 37998
www.johnsonu.edu

Please contact Ms. Duan Hua at (865) 251 3486 or dhua@johnsonu.edu for more information or register.
Registration deadline: October 1, 2016