

Johnson University RightNow Media Application for Credit

Johnson University partners with RightNow Media and offers all students free access to their extensive video library. Students need to sign up and create an account in order to access this resource (www.rightnowmedia.org).

During the Spring 2021 semester, students in need of chapel credits can earn some of those credits by watching:

- "Gifted for Love for the Church" by Matt Chandler
 - 1 credit will be earned for 1 video watched and a written summary turned in.
- "12 Neighbors" founded by Marcel Lebrun
 - Based on the length of the videos, 1 credit will be earned for every 2 videos watched and a written summary turned in.
- "Love Like That" by Dr. Les Parrot
 - Based on the length of the videos, 1 credit will be earned for every 2 videos watched and a written summary turned in.

To find these video series, simply search the title of your selected series on the RightNow Media website. A link also exists on Johnson University's website on the Spiritual Development page.

To apply for earning chapel credit by watching chapel online, complete this form, obtain the necessary signature, and return a hardcopy to the Chapel Office (RPC 73) or email an electronic copy to CTA@JohnsonU.edu.

Important: On a separate document or in the body of an email, summarize each sermon watched in 150 words or more by answering the following questions: (1) What was the primary theme of the message or service? (2) What stories were told, scriptures cited, or things done in the message that supported or developed that theme? (3) How might the theme relate to you and your life situation?
