Johnson University Mission & Values

For over 125 years, Johnson University has remained devoted to educating students for Christian ministries and other strategic vocations framed by the Great Commission in order to extend the kingdom of God among all nations. To accomplish this mission, Johnson has demonstrated a strong commitment to:

- Discipleship: our purpose is to prepare men and women for effective service of Christ utilizing their various skills, passions, and abilities in diverse opportunities and settings. Effective service is built on a foundation of an active, growing relationship with Jesus Christ in which all members of the Johnson community demonstrate the mind of the Spirit in godly decision-making, the fruit of the Spirit in all of their relationships, and the power of the Spirit in their service activities, to the glory of God.
- Scholarship: our faculty is committed to effective teaching and learning, incorporating high standards of preparation, first-rate methodologies and technologies, and the pursuit of excellence in the classroom. All undergraduate students complete a core of Bible and theology courses which prepares them to understand and communicate God's Word, a common arts and sciences curriculum to help them comprehend God's world, and their choice of over 50 professional areas of study to equip them to accomplish God's work throughout the world. There are an additional 21 master's programs, 2 educational specialist programs, and 1 PhD program at the graduate level.
- Community: a unique dimension of our ethos is that we live in community. We believe that developing character in community is an essential part of preparing to be Christian leaders. The encouragement, guidance, and accountability we experience by living, working, eating, recreating, and studying together build strong bonds of friendship and unity that last a lifetime.
- Opportunity: from the very first years of the history of the school, Johnson established a concern for students who wanted to prepare to serve Christ but lacked the financial resources to fund such an education. We work at keeping the cost of our education low and rely on faithful partners to fund a generous scholarship program. We also continue to provide multiple work-study opportunities to assist qualified students in obtaining financial resources for their education.

Mission Statement

Johnson University educates students for Christian ministries and other strategic vocations framed by the Great Commission in order to extend the kingdom of God among all nations.

Core Values

As a private, coeducational institution of higher learning, Johnson University holds to the following core values:

- The lordship of Christ and the authority of Scripture
- The centrality of service to Christian congregations, the local community, and the world
- The necessity of faith, the efficacy of prayer, and the value of work
- The importance of affordability and the worth of a nurturing community
- The imperative of a Christian lifestyle and the virtue of academic discipline
- The priority of communicating throughout the world the message of peace, wholeness, and restoration as described in the Christian Scriptures

Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees of Johnson University is comprised of eight to fifteen members plus the president who serves ex officio. Members come from the ranks of the ministry and other professions representing various supporting constituencies of the University. Half the members shall be alumni of Johnson University. The major responsibility of the Board of Trustees is to give general direction and oversight to the operation of the University. Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

*Data generated by previous academic year

- Retention: According to IPEDS, the Freshman to Sophomore retention rate is a measure of the rate at which students persist in their educational program at an institution, expressed as a percentage. For four-year institutions, this is the percentage of first-time bachelors (or equivalent) degree-seeking undergraduates from the previous fall who are again enrolled in the current fall. The % listed is an average of First-time, full-time and part-time bachelor's seeking students retention rates.
- The IPEDS Graduation Rates 150/200 survey component collects data on the cohort of full-time, first-time degree/certificate-seeking undergraduate students and tracks their completion status when completing all requirements of their program of study in 6/8 years or less (150%/200% time).
- Graduates who completed all degree requirements in an Academic year (FL/SP/SU). Does not include those who walked in a graduation ceremony but who did not complete all degree requirements leading to a conferred degree.
